Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-esn-202	Course name: ESN MBU Volunteer 3
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The student participates in at least five projects. Each project is worth 20 p. The student can collect max. 100 p. Grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.
a) continuous assessment: - Active participation in project organisation involving foreign MBU students as the target group. Preparation of a database, schedule, and budget for the activities. - Creating and evaluating an online survey before and after the semester focused on foreign students' needs and their satisfaction. - Providing tutoring to foreign students during the semester.
b) final assessment: A portfolio of materials related to the projects organised: - report - photo documentation list of the students involved.
Learning objectives: Upon completion, the student has developed practical experience with organising activities focused on foreign students. They know and use correct university-related terminology in foreign languages. They have developed specific competences necessary to perform their job related to the promotion of civic engagement and public service. They can independently identify the default situation, activity goals, steps towards their achievement, schedule, problems; find partners; determine appropriate promotion methods; draft the budget; identify the needs of the participants; perform and evaluate activities. They have learned how to motivate other students to participate in volunteering and develop intercultural understanding.
Brief outline of the course: In terms of volunteering, students actively participate in the MBU Erasmus Student Network. It is a non-profit student organisation that represents foreign students thus creating opportunities for the development of intercultural understanding and personal development. It is based on peer help.

Volunteers help organise educational and leisure activities as well as competitions for the foreign students from MBU partner universities. They help the foreign students integrate into the community and other MBU student organisations.

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-trs-002	Course name: Interpreting Praxeology
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The grade depends on the student's active participation and completion of the final assignment as instructed (test or final paper or portfolio or discussion or micro-presentations etc.).
Learning objectives: Upon completion of the course, the student <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – understands the relevant aspects of their future occupation – they can reflect on partial problems with erudition and in the appropriate contexts – they can link theoretical knowledge to empiricism holistically
Brief outline of the course: In terms of translation studies, interpreting praxeology is a practically oriented course. Its goal is to help students navigate the (supralinguistic) strategic, professional, and economic contexts of interpreting as a job (and related occupations). It addresses the cooperation with agencies and quality managers, freelancing, life-long learning, membership in professional organisations, and interpreting etiquette. The course topics include intercultural, intracultural, and transcultural competences, communication expectations, qualifications, expertise, professionalism. Topics such as community interpreting, public service interpreting, and asylum procedure interpreting are an integral part of this course. The specificities of interpreting as a job are addressed in specific contexts: conference interpreting, interpreting in public institutions, media interpreting, interpreting in politics and diplomacy, interpreting in conflict zones (military interpreting), remote interpreting via the Internet or telephone, court and sworn (legal) interpreting, sign language interpreting, hybrid forms – overlapping simultaneous and consecutive interpreting, interpreting music, subtitling, dubbing.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: At the beginning of the semester, the student gets acquainted with the study regulations and maps the needs of students over whom he has taken over the tutoring. After consultations with the department's study advisor, he/she will prepare a plan of creative activities in order to increase students' awareness. During the semester, he implements information activities, which he/she evaluates at the end of the semester in the form of a report and self-reflection.
a) continuous assessment: Analysis and evaluation of suggestions/needs/problems: 0 - 20 points, preparation of activities: 0 - 25 points, implementation of activities: 0 - 25 points, total: 0 - 70 points.
b) final assessment: Preparation of the final self-evaluation report on the implemented activities and their results with relevant annexes (plan of activities, promotion, list of participants, photo documentation) and recommendations 0-30 points. The evaluation is performed according to the classification scale: A (100 - 94%), B (93 - 87%), C (86 - 80%), D (79 - 73%), E (72 - 65%). Credits will be awarded to a student who has obtained at least 65 out of 100 points.
Learning objectives: Student: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the students; 2. is able to communicate appropriately in the student community; 3. is able to independently organize consulting activities; 4. applies knowledge of the academic environment in counseling; 5. creates a communication platform on the social network and uses it effectively; 6. is able to evaluate student stimuli; 7. is able to assess appropriate forms of promotion of its activities; 8. is able to evaluate the benefits of their creative activities and present their results.
Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the departmental coordinators of ECTS in the study counseling and informing of students in study matters arising from the study regulations and valid legislation.

As part of the self-study, they will get acquainted with the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, he/she provides students with advice on the selection of subjects and the compilation of the study plan in AiS2. He/she shares with students his/her experience with the selection and provision of study literature, preparation for exams, with the possibility of individual study, obtaining scholarships or participating in the activities of student organizations. The tutor maps, analyzes and evaluates the needs of students (e.g. in the form of an online questionnaire). In cooperation with the department's study advisor or with other tutors he/she prepares presentations and discussions, which he/she effectively promotes. The tutor informs students about important dates in the study schedule. He/she collects suggestions from students, evaluates them and communicates study problems with responsible staff. Suitable platforms on social networks are used for communication.
