Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The minimum score for the credits to be assigned is 65 points. The student has the right to one resit. The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements. a) continuous assessment: Completion and evaluation of the tasks performed in Transkribus: - Digitalisation of a historical manuscript and its upload on the Transkribus platform (max. 25 points). - Segmentation of the historical manuscript in Transkribus (max. 25 p.). - Transcript of the historical manuscript for the purpose of automated transcription model creation (max. 25 p.). - Export of the transcribed historical manuscript (max. 25 p.). b) final assessment: Based on the continuous assessment: evaluation of the sum of the points obtained for the tasks completed in the mid-term evaluation (max. 100 points).
Learning objectives: The students learn about the automated transcription of historical manuscripts. They learn how to read and transliterate a manuscript. They learn to work with the Transkribus platform, which uses the neural engine. It can segment the digitalised manuscript for the purpose of automated transcription. It can create an automated transcription model for a historical manuscript. The student uses their knowledge and skills to work with an archive source, i.e. they digitalise it and create an editable output, which can be used for further historical work.
Brief outline of the course: Historical manuscript digitalisation. The Transkribus platform and its functionalities. Uploading a digitalised source on Transkribus. Segmenting a non-segmented historical manuscript in Transkribus. Segmenting a historical manuscript into a table. Transcription of the historical manuscript – rules and procedure. The relationship between transliteration, transcription, and editing. HTR+ model development. Exporting the transcribed historical manuscript and its further use. Presentation of the transcribed texts: Transkribus Lite.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 2., 4.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: At the beginning of the semester, the student gets acquainted with the study regulations and maps the needs of students over whom he has taken over the tutoring. After consultations with the department's study advisor, he/she will prepare a plan of creative activities in order to increase students' awareness. During the semester, he implements information activities, which he/she evaluates at the end of the semester in the form of a report and self-reflection. a) continuous assessment: Analysis and evaluation of suggestions/needs/problems: 0 - 20 points, preparation of activities: 0 - 25 points, implementation of activities: 0 - 25 points, total: 0 - 70 points. b) final assessment: Preparation of the final self-evaluation report on the implemented activities and their results with relevant annexes (plan of activities, promotion, list of participants, photo documentation) and recommendations 0-30 points.
Learning objectives: Student: 1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the students; 2. is able to communicate appropriately in the student community; 3. is able to independently organize consulting activities; 4. applies knowledge of the academic environment in counseling; 5. creates a communication platform on the social network and uses it effectively; 6. is able to evaluate student stimuli; 7. is able to assess appropriate forms of promotion of its activities; 8. is able to evaluate the benefits of their creative activities and present their results.
Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the departmental coordinators of ECTS in the study counseling and informing of students in study matters arising from the study regulations and valid legislation. As part of the self-study, they will get acquainted with the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, he/she provides students with advice on the selection of subjects and the compilation of the study plan in AiS2. He/she shares with students his/her experience with the selection and provision of study literature, preparation for exams, with the possibility of individual study, obtaining scholarships or participating in the activities of student organizations. The tutor maps, analyzes and evaluates the needs of students (e.g. in the form of an online questionnaire). In cooperation with the department's study advisor or with other tutors he/she prepares presentations and discussions, which he/she effectively promotes. The tutor informs students about important dates in the study schedule. He/she collects suggestions from students, evaluates them and communicates study problems with responsible staff. Suitable platforms on social networks are used for communication.

Learning objectives: . The course does not focus on the acquisition of facts presented in the traditional history of events but rather on the acquisition of knowledge through anthropological and semantic methods and based on a multi-perspective approach. 2. Students will be led to analyse the abstract symbolic aspects of life and historical memory in the context of neighbouring cultures, which will allow them to recognize less apparent but essential facets of national and civil formation processes in the 19th century. 3. Students will develop a deeper, more structured and less conventional image of the Slovak national identity formation (and neighbouring nations), they will understand the vigour and limits of modern nationalism, as well as specific aspects of the development of Slovak society that determined its historical memory and mentality during the 20th century.
Brief outline of the course: 1. The concept of modern national identity. Factors and tools of its formation and establishment. 2. The changes in historiography – formation of national historiographies and transformation of historical memory. Historicism as a tool of national emancipation. 3. Historical concepts of Slovak history in the 19th century – between the idea of the Hungarian Empire and the idea of a thousand-year oppression.

4. Great Moravia and its rise to a national symbol.
5. National symbols, the specific elements of symbols. Theoretical definition of symbols and national symbols, their functions, forms, structure, determinants.
6. Creators, bearers and recipients of symbols. Symbols and stereotypes, celebrations, myths.
7. Historical and natural symbols. An intimate understanding of one's own country.
8. Leading figures as symbols and their celebrations.
9. Folk culture vs. high culture in pursuit of one's own symbols.
10. History and presence of heraldic symbols and anthems.
11. The role of the state and political power in the formation of historical memory and world of national symbols. Their marginalization.
12. Radical changes in memory and symbology after 1918.
