Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 4.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: In the course of the semester students will attend lectures, where they will acquire a basic understanding of the issues that will serve as a basis for their independent study of required and recommended reading. During the examination period they will take an oral exam from which they can gain a maximum of 100 points. The course assessment corresponds to the A-FX grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points out of a possible 100.
a) continuous assessment: Only final assessment
b) final assessment: Oral exam. Comprised of three questions covering the whole period. Students will receive the list of thematic areas for the exam at the beginning of the semester.
Learning objectives: 1. Students will significantly deepen their knowledge of 19th century history, the basic milestones of the historical period, trends of development and leading figures. 2. They will familiarize themselves with new research methods and interpretations of 19th century history, learn new concepts and deepen their ability to grasp relevant connections within Slovak history in the context of Central European events. 3. The course will be conducted in such a way that the students will deepen their critical and independent historical thinking and thus be able to create a modern, unbiased image of the century of nationalism and spot any narrow-minded stereotype regarding Slovak and Hungarian history. 4. They will enhance their ability to correctly analyse period texts, create reasoning tools and use them in discussions in a refined manner.
Brief outline of the course: 1. Basic specific features of the historical period, its internal development, new phenomena, new concepts. 2. The Age of Enlightenment and its effects on new views on politics, humanity, society, freedom. Principle of equality – an impulse for a new civil and national solidarity. 3. Modernization – economy, social life, ideology, ethnic structure and demographic growth. 4. Bipolar concepts of the future of the Kingdom of Hungary – the idea of national equality and multiethnicity of national movements and the idea of Magyarization and a Hungarian national state.

5. Emancipation of modern nations in the Kingdom of Hungary and the monarchy. The beginnings of the Slovak National Revival – basic features of the Bernolák phase of the Slovak National Revival. Emancipation of Hungarian culture, language and politics.
6. The Kollár-Hamuljak phase and Štúr phase of the Slovak National Revival. The formation of the concept of a modern Slovak nation, an independent culture, Slovak politics and national institutions. The national movement and Slovak society, the formation of the public. A comparison with other national movements.
7. The Revolutions of 1848 and Slovaks – state-law politics, allies and enemies, military displays, political institutions, territorial issues. Visions of a Slovak crown land. Disputes over the success and failure of the revolution.
8. The restoration of the constitutional situation in the 1860s, Hungarian state-law opposition and Slovak politics – its differentiation and autonomist programme. Slovak cultural institutions, cultural production, economic activities.
9. The Austro-Hungarian Compromise as the beginning of the modernization in the Kingdom of Hungary, Magyarization and retardation of Slovak growth. The forms and appeal of modernization and Magyarization. The changes in social stratification, industrialization.
10. The marginalization of Slovak politics and culture during the period of dualism. Their revival in the 1890s, growth, differentiation, relative success, leading figures. Hungarian national politics, Magyarization.
11. Emigration at home and in the US – causes and consequences. The rapid civil and national emancipation of Slovaks in the US. American Slovaks as a crucial element of Slovak culture, economy and politics.
12. The tragedy of World War I and the road to the formation of Czechoslovakia. The resistance at home and abroad. Legions, leading figures, documents.

The state examination committee comprehensively evaluates the quality of the bachelor's thesis based on the assessments and student's defence of the thesis. The defence of the bachelor's thesis is based on an oral discussion, questions formulated to encompass a more broadly conceived problem related to the bachelor's thesis. The solution of this problem requires that the student has the necessary knowledge listed in the theses for the state examination. These are based on the socio-scientific, psychological-pedagogical and subject-didactic context of the field. The conditions for receiving the assessment A to E from the committee, after taking the content of the state examination into account, are specified in the theses for the state examination.
b) final assessment: State examination with an oral discussion-based defence of the final thesis: 100 points
Learning objectives: By passing the state examination and defending the bachelor's thesis students will be able: 1. To gain: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• bearings in knowledge related to the problem addressed in the bachelor's thesis 2. To understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• basic contexts of the problem at hand and formulate preliminary conclusions to their research before verifying them, or recommendations for practice 3. To utilise: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• relevant specialised sources and from these identify important notions for the context of the thesis• theoretical knowledge of the subject matter in practical diagnostic and didactic applications• basic pedagogical, psychological and social relations to explain the problem at hand• and apply principles of bibliographic and citation standards 4. To: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• analyse the topic at hand in a logical structure of the bachelor's thesis• design and verify teaching methods and education programs to solve the problem addressed in the bachelor's thesis and interpret the results• critically and logically work with the theoretical background of the problem at hand in the given context and use it in specialised communication while reasoning and defending their own views on the problem at hand

5. To create:

- a consistent specialised, theoretical-didactic text, which contains the creative utilisation of relevant specialised sources, their own unique thoughts and possible solutions to the problem at hand

Brief outline of the course:

Specialised knowledge of the problem addressed in the bachelor's thesis, of its social and psychological-pedagogical context. Didactic transformation of chosen theoretical knowledge of a relevant topic from the qualification course. The integration of knowledge from the individual disciplines of bachelor studies according to the theses for the state examination. Specialised communication and argumentation. Work with literature, bibliographic and citation standards.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: At the beginning of the semester, the student gets acquainted with the study regulations and maps the needs of students over whom he has taken over the tutoring. After consultations with the department's study advisor, he/she will prepare a plan of creative activities in order to increase students' awareness. During the semester, he implements information activities, which he/she evaluates at the end of the semester in the form of a report and self-reflection. a) continuous assessment: Analysis and evaluation of suggestions/needs/problems: 0 - 20 points, preparation of activities: 0 - 25 points, implementation of activities: 0 - 25 points, total: 0 - 70 points. b) final assessment: Preparation of the final self-evaluation report on the implemented activities and their results with relevant annexes (plan of activities, promotion, list of participants, photo documentation) and recommendations 0-30 points.
Learning objectives: Student: 1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the students; 2. is able to communicate appropriately in the student community; 3. is able to independently organize consulting activities; 4. applies knowledge of the academic environment in counseling; 5. creates a communication platform on the social network and uses it effectively; 6. is able to evaluate student stimuli; 7. is able to assess appropriate forms of promotion of its activities; 8. is able to evaluate the benefits of their creative activities and present their results.
Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the departmental coordinators of ECTS in the study counseling and informing of students in study matters arising from the study regulations and valid legislation. As part of the self-study, they will get acquainted with the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, he/she provides students with advice on the selection of subjects and the compilation of the study plan in AiS2. He/she shares with students his/her experience with the selection and provision of study literature, preparation for exams, with the possibility of individual study, obtaining scholarships or participating in the activities of student organizations. The tutor maps, analyzes and evaluates the needs of students (e.g. in the form of an online questionnaire). In cooperation with the department's study advisor or with other tutors he/she prepares presentations and discussions, which he/she effectively promotes. The tutor informs students about important dates in the study schedule. He/she collects suggestions from students, evaluates them and communicates study problems with responsible staff. Suitable platforms on social networks are used for communication.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 1d-his-221	Course name: The phenomenon of revolutions in the history of the early modern period
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Seminar Course type: B (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: During the semester, students will analyse the source and/or specialized text about the subject's topic and will have to actively participate during the lessons (max. 3 permitted absences). After the semester completion, they will prepare a seminar work to the extent of 10 – 15 pages, or the Powerpoint presentation to the extent of 20 slides. The course assessment corresponds to the A-FX grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points out of possible 100.
a) continuous assessment: Active participation in the lessons – 20 %. Paper presentation – 30 %
b) final assessment: Seminar paper – 50%
Learning objectives: After the course completion, students should better understand the important historical events in the period of the Early Modern Period, which are usually described as revolutions in the specialized literature. They will be informed about their causes, inside development, wider context of the development and the overall meaning in the example of five selected revolutions. The paper (or Powerpoint presentation) preparation should help students to clearly understand the observed factors. The paper's/presentation's content will be an analysis of the selected historical source or specialized scientific study. Finally, they will also prepare a final seminar paper, in which they will have the task of critically analysing the selected problem of a concrete revolutionary event. These tasks will help develop the students' critical thinking and ability to interpret historical events objectively.
Brief outline of the course: During five meetings, students will be informed about the historical causes and results of the most important revolutions in the period of the Early Modern Period (16th – 18th centuries). The following historical events will be discussed: the German Reformation as a religious and social revolution (1500 -1555); the Dutch War of Independence (1566 – 1648); the English Civil War or the fight of the Parliament against the King (1640 – 1660); the American Revolution as a fight for national and political self-determination (1763 – 1783); the Great French Revolution as a fight for human rights (1789 – 1799).
