University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-trs-002	Course name: Interpreting Praxeology
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The grade depends on the student's active participation and completion of the final assignment as instructed (test or final paper or portfolio or discussion or micro-presentations etc.).
Learning objectives: Upon completion of the course, the student <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – understands the relevant aspects of their future occupation – they can reflect on partial problems with erudition and in the appropriate contexts – they can link theoretical knowledge to empiricism holistically
Brief outline of the course: In terms of translation studies, interpreting praxeology is a practically oriented course. Its goal is to help students navigate the (supralinguistic) strategic, professional, and economic contexts of interpreting as a job (and related occupations). It addresses the cooperation with agencies and quality managers, freelancing, life-long learning, membership in professional organisations, and interpreting etiquette. The course topics include intercultural, intracultural, and transcultural competences, communication expectations, qualifications, expertise, professionalism. Topics such as community interpreting, public service interpreting, and asylum procedure interpreting are an integral part of this course. The specificities of interpreting as a job are addressed in specific contexts: conference interpreting, interpreting in public institutions, media interpreting, interpreting in politics and diplomacy, interpreting in conflict zones (military interpreting), remote interpreting via the Internet or telephone, court and sworn (legal) interpreting, sign language interpreting, hybrid forms – overlapping simultaneous and consecutive interpreting, interpreting music, subtitling, dubbing.

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-lsl3-03	Course name: Literature and Service Learning 3
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture / Seminar Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 0 / 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The student undergoes theoretical preparation to understand the point of service learning as a strategy and develops the selected competences (team work, planning, promotion, evaluation). They actively participate in the identification of community needs and presents the findings. Based on this, the student describes the default situation in which the service learning activity will take place and consults it with the instructor. Subsequently, the student drafts their service learning project (default situation, service goals, educational goals, schedule, information of partners, promotion, funding, evaluation methods). The project draft is, again, consulted with the instructor. The student selects the target group and project goals in accordance with their study field and focuses on developing their own text-work competences as well. This course builds on the Literature and Service learning 1 course and enhances the theoretical knowledge of service learning.
a) continuous assessment: (10) Active participation in block classes (3 blocks) (10) Consultations (10) Flexibility and appropriate communication (20) Identification of the needs and formulation of the goals (20) Quality of the project draft (the plan form)
b) final assessment: Based on the continuous assessment (70%), self-assessment (15%), group assessment (15%). The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). To collect the credits, the student has to score at least 65% in each activity (or at least 65% in total).
Learning objectives: Upon completion of this course, the student <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. can explain the point of service learning 2. can work in a team and communicate in an appropriate way 3. can analyse their own needs as well as the needs of the community 4. can formulate the service learning goals based on these needs 5. can prepare a service learning project addressing actual needs and achieve the goals specified 6. understands the importance of personal and social responsibility and civic engagement

Brief outline of the course:

1. The point of service learning.
2. Team work and communication competence development.
3. Identifying the community needs.
4. How to determine the service and educational goals.
5. Planning as a competence – importance, steps.
6. Time management – importance and principles.
7. Promotion before and after the activity takes place.
8. How to evaluate the activities.
9. Service learning project draft.
10. Service learning project draft – evaluation.

Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: At the beginning of the semester, the student gets acquainted with the study regulations and maps the needs of students over whom he has taken over the tutoring. After consultations with the department's study advisor, he/she will prepare a plan of creative activities in order to increase students' awareness. During the semester, he implements information activities, which he/she evaluates at the end of the semester in the form of a report and self-reflection.
a) continuous assessment: Analysis and evaluation of suggestions/needs/problems: 0 - 20 points, preparation of activities: 0 - 25 points, implementation of activities: 0 - 25 points, total: 0 - 70 points.
b) final assessment: Preparation of the final self-evaluation report on the implemented activities and their results with relevant annexes (plan of activities, promotion, list of participants, photo documentation) and recommendations 0-30 points. The evaluation is performed according to the classification scale: A (100 - 94%), B (93 - 87%), C (86 - 80%), D (79 - 73%), E (72 - 65%). Credits will be awarded to a student who has obtained at least 65 out of 100 points.
Learning objectives: Student: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the students; 2. is able to communicate appropriately in the student community; 3. is able to independently organize consulting activities; 4. applies knowledge of the academic environment in counseling; 5. creates a communication platform on the social network and uses it effectively; 6. is able to evaluate student stimuli; 7. is able to assess appropriate forms of promotion of its activities; 8. is able to evaluate the benefits of their creative activities and present their results.
Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the departmental coordinators of ECTS in the study counseling and informing of students in study matters arising from the study regulations and valid legislation.

As part of the self-study, they will get acquainted with the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, he/she provides students with advice on the selection of subjects and the compilation of the study plan in AiS2. He/she shares with students his/her experience with the selection and provision of study literature, preparation for exams, with the possibility of individual study, obtaining scholarships or participating in the activities of student organizations. The tutor maps, analyzes and evaluates the needs of students (e.g. in the form of an online questionnaire). In cooperation with the department's study advisor or with other tutors he/she prepares presentations and discussions, which he/she effectively promotes. The tutor informs students about important dates in the study schedule. He/she collects suggestions from students, evaluates them and communicates study problems with responsible staff. Suitable platforms on social networks are used for communication.

Learning objectives: . The course does not focus on the acquisition of facts presented in the traditional history of events but rather on the acquisition of knowledge through anthropological and semantic methods and based on a multi-perspective approach. 2. Students will be led to analyse the abstract symbolic aspects of life and historical memory in the context of neighbouring cultures, which will allow them to recognize less apparent but essential facets of national and civil formation processes in the 19th century. 3. Students will develop a deeper, more structured and less conventional image of the Slovak national identity formation (and neighbouring nations), they will understand the vigour and limits of modern nationalism, as well as specific aspects of the development of Slovak society that determined its historical memory and mentality during the 20th century.
Brief outline of the course: 1. The concept of modern national identity. Factors and tools of its formation and establishment. 2. The changes in historiography – formation of national historiographies and transformation of historical memory. Historicism as a tool of national emancipation. 3. Historical concepts of Slovak history in the 19th century – between the idea of the Hungarian Empire and the idea of a thousand-year oppression.

4. Great Moravia and its rise to a national symbol.
5. National symbols, the specific elements of symbols. Theoretical definition of symbols and national symbols, their functions, forms, structure, determinants.
6. Creators, bearers and recipients of symbols. Symbols and stereotypes, celebrations, myths.
7. Historical and natural symbols. An intimate understanding of one's own country.
8. Leading figures as symbols and their celebrations.
9. Folk culture vs. high culture in pursuit of one's own symbols.
10. History and presence of heraldic symbols and anthems.
11. The role of the state and political power in the formation of historical memory and world of national symbols. Their marginalization.
12. Radical changes in memory and symbology after 1918.

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-vdsl-02	Course name: The Great Works in World Literature II
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 2., 4.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The student prepares an essay in which he/she takes a position on the issue discussed. The final assessment is passed/failed.
Learning objectives: 1. The student will obtain an adequate overview of the origin and functioning of selected representative literary works from several civilizational and cultural areas from medieval literature to contemporary literature; will improve in professional terminology. 2. The student will acquire the specific interpretation skills necessary when working with a literary text anchored in a radically different cultural environment, thereby strengthening tolerance towards cultural differences and the will to respect the right to be different. 3. The student is able to conduct research on the assigned topic, can identify reliable sources, select relevant information from them and present it to others in a clear and useful form. 4. The student will acquire an organized sum of knowledge and a more widely applicable set of useful habits, methods, approaches, competences applicable in the interpretation of literary and non-literary texts or other cultural phenomena from various cultural periods.
Brief outline of the course: Some of the greatest works of the European literature from the Middle Ages to the present day will be presented. It will be a selective selection of the presentation of literary worlds and the values they created. The Divine Comedy as the main work of the Middle Ages or the Renaissance? The Middle Ages as the "cradle" of European culture and education. Testaments enfant terrible. The spiciness of the Decameron and Laura's ephemerality. From Shakespeare to French classical drama. Playwrights and their (non)dramatic characters. Fairy tales that changed the world. Shock the bourgeois! Avant-gardes in world art. Literature as a place for women. On Freedom, Being and Apricot Cocktails: Existentialism in World Literature. Crazy for Life: The Beat Generation and Their Followers. Great works in small publishers.
