Learning objectives:

The student will be able to:

1. Integrate the heterogeneous practical experience which he/she acquired during the previous practice with new conditions and links the student did not know before.
2. Have the opportunity to comprehensively observe the work of Slovak language and literature teachers with students in various types of schools.
3. Comprehensively learn the activity of a teacher.
4. Learn the particular educational situations formed during and outside of the teaching process.
5. Acquire activities and perform tasks near to the requirements of an actual teaching job, including outer teaching activities.

Brief outline of the course:

Continuous teaching practice is considered the highest, complex and integrating form of the practical preparation of students from pedagogical faculties. The content of the continuous pedagogical practice is the preparation of a teaching lesson project on language, writing and literary components from the Slovak Language and Literature course in lower and higher secondary education according to the instructions from the supervising teachers, consulting the preparation with the supervising teacher and then consequently leading the teaching lesson by himself/herself.

Apply the acquired theoretical knowledge from the General Didactic, Didactics of the Slovak Language and Writing, Pedagogical and Psychological Disciplines into particular teaching lessons in the language and writing part of the Slovak Language and Literature course in lower and higher secondary education.
2. Perform in a class full of students and expose the new curriculum with the help of different methods.
3. Activate the students and carry out the didactic diagnosing and evaluation.
4. Create a detailed preparation for the teaching process with the help of instructions from the supervising teachers for lower and higher secondary education.

Brief outline of the course:

The content of the continuous pedagogical practice based on the instructions of the supervising teachers is to produce a teaching class project on the language and content component of the Slovak Language and Literature course in lower and higher secondary education and consult the preparation on teaching with the supervising teacher and consequently lead the teaching class by himself/herself.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-esn-200	Course name: ESN MBU Volunteer 1
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 1.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The student participates in at least five projects. Each project is worth 20 p. The student can collect max. 100 p. Grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.
a) continuous assessment: - Active participation in project organisation involving foreign MBU students as the target group. Preparation of a database, schedule, and budget for the activities. - Creating and evaluating an online survey before and after the semester focused on foreign students' needs and their satisfaction. - Providing tutoring to foreign students during the semester.
b) final assessment: A portfolio of materials related to the projects organised: - report - photo documentation - list of the students involved.
Learning objectives: Upon completion, the student has developed practical experience with organising activities focused on foreign students. They know and use correct university-related terminology in foreign languages. They have developed specific competences necessary to perform their job related to the promotion of civic engagement and public service. They can independently identify the default situation, activity goals, steps towards their achievement, schedule, problems; find partners; determine appropriate promotion methods; draft the budget; identify the needs of the participants; perform and evaluate activities. They have learned how to motivate other students to participate in volunteering and develop intercultural understanding.
Brief outline of the course: In terms of volunteering, students actively participate in the MBU Erasmus Student Network. It is a non-profit student organisation that represents foreign students thus creating opportunities for the development of intercultural understanding and personal development. It is based on peer help. Volunteers help organise educational and leisure activities as well as competitions for the foreign students from MBU partner universities. They help the foreign students integrate into the community and other MBU student organisations.

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-fju-006	Course name: Intensive Teaching Practice - French
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Prax Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 30s Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 2
Recommended semester/trimester: 4.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: Continuous assessment consists of active participation in continuous practice and recording. The final assessment consists of a portfolio of materials from pedagogical practice: in writing processed records from the didactic audio recordings of lessons - audio recordings of a trainee teacher/teachers. Part of the final evaluation are written preparations for direct teaching activity, including didactic analysis of the curriculum, self-assessment of the pedagogical practice/continuous (including proposals and recommendations), written assessment of individual learners of lessons by the trainee teacher (we recommend an evaluation sheet in which the trainee teacher expresses himself/herself in structured items for individual items and the overall final assessment of the student on continuous practice (min. 65 points, max. 100 points). The point evaluation for individual components is determined by the approval subjects. Each student chooses a practice school, where he completes 15 hours of practice during the semester, out of one hour of observing a teacher's lesson and 14 hours of own output. The student prepares his lessons in cooperation with the practice teacher (60%). After the end of the semester, he submits a completed file with his own preparations, a written evaluation of the trainee teacher's practice and own written evaluation (40%). The student has the right to one correction deadline for submitting the file. The assessment is carried out according to the classification scale: A (100 - 94 %), B (93 - 87 %), C (86 - 80%), D (79-73%), E (72-65%). Credits will be awarded to a student who has obtained at least 65% for fulfilling the specified conditions. The requirements and recommended literature are updated annually in the course syllabi. a) continuous assessment: lesson observation and teaching outputs (60%) b) final evaluation: filling out the file The student has the right to one correction deadline for submitting the file.
Learning objectives: The student 1. integrates many practical experiences gained during previous forms of practice with new conditions and contexts that he was not familiar with until now.

2. has the opportunity to comprehensively view the work of teachers with students at different types of schools.
3. learns the activities of the teacher in a comprehensive way, learns and gradually knows how to solve specific educational problems or situations that arise during and outside of teaching.
4. acquires activities and performs tasks that are close to the requirements of a real teaching job, including his extracurricular activities.
5. will use relevant professional literature to gain knowledge in the given field
6. writes notes
7. observes interactions in the classroom between the teacher and students and between students
8. observes the teacher's pedagogical approaches and interprets them based on his theoretical knowledge from didactics
9. observes the students' learning process and the students' reactions to the teacher's stimuli and their own stimuli
10. critically analyzes his own outputs
11. cooperates with a trainee teacher
12. prepares preparations for lessons and adjusts them after his own analysis and notes of the training teacher
13. applies theoretical knowledge from didactics into practice

Code: 2d-lsl3-03	Course name: Literature and Service Learning 3
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture / Seminar Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 0 / 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The student undergoes theoretical preparation to understand the point of service learning as a strategy and develops the selected competences (team work, planning, promotion, evaluation). They actively participate in the identification of community needs and presents the findings. Based on this, the student describes the default situation in which the service learning activity will take place and consults it with the instructor. Subsequently, the student drafts their service learning project (default situation, service goals, educational goals, schedule, information of partners, promotion, funding, evaluation methods). The project draft is, again, consulted with the instructor. The student selects the target group and project goals in accordance with their study field and focuses on developing their own text-work competences as well. This course builds on the Literature and Service learning 1 course and enhances the theoretical knowledge of service learning.
a) continuous assessment: (10) Active participation in block classes (3 blocks) (10) Consultations (10) Flexibility and appropriate communication (20) Identification of the needs and formulation of the goals (20) Quality of the project draft (the plan form)
b) final assessment: Based on the continuous assessment (70%), self-assessment (15%), group assessment (15%). The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). To collect the credits, the student has to score at least 65% in each activity (or at least 65% in total).
Learning objectives: Upon completion of this course, the student <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. can explain the point of service learning</li> <li>2. can work in a team and communicate in an appropriate way</li> <li>3. can analyse their own needs as well as the needs of the community</li> <li>4. can formulate the service learning goals based on these needs</li> <li>5. can prepare a service learning project addressing actual needs and achieve the goals specified</li> <li>6. understands the importance of personal and social responsibility and civic engagement</li> </ol>

Brief outline of the course:

1. The point of service learning.
2. Team work and communication competence development.
3. Identifying the community needs.
4. How to determine the service and educational goals.
5. Planning as a competence – importance, steps.
6. Time management – importance and principles.
7. Promotion before and after the activity takes place.
8. How to evaluate the activities.
9. Service learning project draft.
10. Service learning project draft – evaluation.

Code: 2d-msp-01	Course name: Methodology of Literary Studies and School Practice
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture / Seminar Course type: B (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 13 / 13 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: a) continuous assessment: short text interpretation (4 x 2.5 = 10 p.) seminar paper (2 x 10 = 20 p.) b) final assessment: written test focused on the selected topics. The maximum number of points consisting of continuous and final assessment is 100. Credits are assigned to the student who acquires the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements. Credits will not be awarded to a student who scores less than 10 points in the continuous assessment. The student has the right to one resit. The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements. a) continuous assessment: See the course completion conditions. b) final assessment: See the course completion conditions.
Learning objectives: The student enhances their pragmatic study of the selected texts addressing literary studies, which influence literature teaching in schools. They can identify the typical subject-didactic consequences of selecting specific methodological platforms from the major directions, schools, and currents in literary studies. They understand the relationships between contradictory methodological and subject-didactic viewpoints and can compare them. The student can critically evaluate the selected texts addressing literary studies and reflect on them from the viewpoint of teaching Slovak language and literature. They improve their ability to analyse the material and formulate opinions. They learn how to evaluate different professional approaches and verify their justification, evaluate their own arguments and the efficiency of teaching methods. The student learns how to design school literary education based on multiple methodological viewpoints and follows the development of methodology in literary studies. They develop their own professional profile based on the possibilities provided by up-to-date literary studies.
Brief outline of the course:

Literary studies – P. V. Zima’s classification of approaches and their subject-didactic consequences: literary studies between Hegel and Kant.

- Marxism and Russian formalism.
- M. Bakhtin.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-smg-01	Course name: State Examination – Diploma Thesis and Defence
Type, extent and method of instruction:
Form of instruction:
Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)
Recommended number of periods:
Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 20
Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 4..
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions:
Completion of all compulsory courses in the study programme.
Completion of elective and voluntary courses in the quantity prescribed for the study programme (min. 100 credits).
Final assessment: The state exam consists of two parts:
(1) Diploma thesis (DT) defence. The DT supervisor and opponent create reviews and propose assessment. The State Examination Commission provides a complex evaluation of the DT's quality based on the reviews and student's thesis defence.
(2) The state examination also includes a specialised discussion (Methodological Instruction on the State Examination, 2022). During the discussion, the student responds to questions addressing the broader context of their DT subject matter to prove they have the knowledge pertaining to the state examination topics. These topics address the subject didactics, basics of social sciences, pedagogy, and psychology in the psychodidactic context of education.
The conditions for obtaining grades A to E take into account both parts of the state examination. They are specified in the current state examination topics.
Learning objectives:
1. The student has advanced knowledge and understanding of the subject matter addressed in the Diploma thesis including its broader context. They can formulate clear conclusions and practical recommendations. The student has developed systematic knowledge of the individual disciplines addressed during their university study.
2. In accordance with the field of study description, the student is required to prove the following (especially in the core curriculum disciplines – pedagogical psychology and social sciences) knowledge: 1) theoretical knowledge 2) practical skills and the ability to apply them in teaching the selected target group of students by providing a specific example of modelling the selected didactic variables in the general psychodidactic context (in accordance with the pedagogical and psychological disciplines that were part of the study).
3. In accordance with the field of study description, the student is required to prove the following knowledge of Slovak language teaching didactics, teaching basic writing, and literature didactics in the context of linguistics and literary studies: 1) theoretical knowledge, 2) practical skills and the ability to apply them in teaching at primary and secondary schools by providing a specific example of modelling the selected didactic variables in teaching Slovak language and literature as an academic subject (in accordance with the linguistic, literary studies, and didactic courses that were part of the study).

4. The student can identify relevant specialised sources as well as the ideas important for the context of their thesis. They have theoretical knowledge of the research topic in practical diagnostic and didactic contexts. They understand the research methodology, and the broader pedagogical, psychological, and social context of the problem. The student follows the bibliographic and citation standards.

5. The student can analyse the subject matter and arrange it into logically and systematically separated and interconnected structural parts of the thesis, design and verify the didactic procedures applied to the subject matter addressed in their thesis, design and implement research, and interpret its results. They can use the theory critically, synthesize the contextual knowledge, and use it in specialised communication, i.e. argumentation and defence of their opinion on the subject matter.

6. The student creates a consistent specialised text (focused on theory/didactics or theory/research) in which they approach the relevant specialised sources in a critical manner and uses the relevant sources in a creative way.

They can creatively process the relevant specialised sources, offer own original ideas and ways of addressing the subject matter.

Brief outline of the course:

1. Expert knowledge of the diploma thesis (DT) topic including its broader international, social, pedagogical and psychological contexts.

2. DT thesis topic in the context of the Teacher Training and Education Science FoS (ISCED 2 and 3).

3. Didactic transformation of the selected theoretical knowledge of the academic subject.

4. Research methodology.

5. Integrated knowledge of the disciplines studied including their broader context in accordance with the state examination topics. Integrated knowledge of the theory of upbringing applied to the DT topic.

6. Specialised communication and argumentation.

7. Working with literature, bibliographic and citation standards.

8. Presentation skills.

Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the department ECTS coordinators in consulting and providing information on study issues to students in accordance with the study rules and valid legislation.

They self-study the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, they arrange meetings with new students at the beginning of the academic year. They inform the new students about life at the university, their rights and responsibilities, and explain the principles of credit study. They advise students on the selection of courses and creation of study plans in AiS2. They share their own experience with the selection and acquisition of study literature, studying for exams, individual study possibilities, scholarships, and participating in student organisations. They identify, analyse, and evaluate the tutored students' needs (e.g. via an online survey). In cooperation with the department study advisor and other student tutors, they prepare informational presentations and discussions, and promotes them. They inform other students on important dates in the academic schedule. They collect complaints and ideas, evaluate, and communicate them to the responsible staff. They communicate via an appropriate social media platform as well.

6. can evaluate other students' needs
7. can select appropriate forms of promotion of their activities
8. can evaluate the benefit of their creative activities and present their results.

Brief outline of the course:

The tutor cooperates with the department ECTS coordinators in consulting and providing information on study issues to students in accordance with the study rules and valid legislation. They self-study the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, they arrange meetings with new students at the beginning of the academic year.

They inform the new students about life at the university, their rights and responsibilities, and explain the principles of credit study. They advise students on the selection of courses and creation of study plans in AiS2. They share their own experience with the selection and acquisition of study literature, studying for exams, individual study possibilities, scholarships, and participating in student organisations. They identify, analyse, and evaluate the tutored students' needs (e.g. via an online survey). In cooperation with the department study advisor and other student tutors, they prepare informational presentations and discussions, and promotes them. They inform other students on important dates in the academic schedule. They collect complaints and ideas, evaluate, and communicate study related issues to the relevant employees. They communicate via an appropriate social media platform as well.

Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The student prepares an essay in which he/she takes a position on the issue discussed. The final assessment is passed/failed.
Learning objectives: 1. The student will obtain an adequate overview of the origin and functioning of selected representative literary works from several civilizational and cultural areas from medieval literature to contemporary literature; will improve in professional terminology. 2. The student will acquire the specific interpretation skills necessary when working with a literary text anchored in a radically different cultural environment, thereby strengthening tolerance towards cultural differences and the will to respect the right to be different. 3. The student is able to conduct research on the assigned topic, can identify reliable sources, select relevant information from them and present it to others in a clear and useful form. 4. The student will acquire an organized sum of knowledge and a more widely applicable set of useful habits, methods, approaches, competences applicable in the interpretation of literary and non-literary texts or other cultural phenomena from various cultural periods.
Brief outline of the course: Some of the greatest works of the European literature from the Middle Ages to the present day will be presented. It will be a selective selection of the presentation of literary worlds and the values they created. The Divine Comedy as the main work of the Middle Ages or the Renaissance? The Middle Ages as the "cradle" of European culture and education. Testaments enfant terrible. The spiciness of the Decameron and Laura's ephemerality. From Shakespeare to French classical drama. Playwrights and their (non)dramatic characters. Fairy tales that changed the world. Shock the bourgeois! Avant-gardes in world art. Literature as a place for women. On Freedom, Being and Apricot Cocktails: Existentialism in World Literature. Crazy for Life: The Beat Generation and Their Followers. Great works in small publishers.
