Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: In the course of the semester students will attend lectures, where they will acquire basic knowledge for their independent study of the required and recommended reading. During the examination period they will take an oral exam. final assessment: oral exam: 0 – 100 points Students have the right for one resit of the final oral exam. The course assessment corresponds to the A-FX grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points out of a possible 100.
b) final assessment: final assessment: oral exam: 0 – 100 points Students have the right for one resit of the final oral exam. The course assessment corresponds to the A-FX grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points out of a possible 100.
Learning objectives: After the completion of the course students will be able to orientate themselves in knowledge related to the history of human society with an emphasis on the 20th century Slovak history. Students will be able to correctly assess important historical milestones and the key questions of the development of Slovakia in the different stages of the 20th century. Students will be able to compare totalitarian regimes and their conflict with democracy and understand the nature and historical origin of anti-Semitism and the Holocaust. After passing the exam students must also possess the basic factual, theoretical, methodological and practical knowledge of the field they will subsequently use after finishing their bachelor studies. The complex understanding of 20th century Slovak history will then enable them to conceive specialized texts and to apply their knowledge while writing a bachelor's thesis related to this specific period of Slovak history. All knowledge, abilities and skills acquired by the students after the completion of the course are essential for future master's degree studies.

The presentation of the key personalities and works of this period at the current level of the scientific research. Emphasizing the continuity of Slovak romanticism with previous literary development; analysis of the most significant literary works and the ability to present them creatively. Literary-historical overview of poetry, prose and drama of Slovak realism in the last third of the 19th and at the beginning of the 20th century in the form of the creative overcoming of the literary tradition, the constitution of the features characteristic for the realistic concept of art and the anticipation of modernism. The meaning of modernism in the evolution of the Slovak literature.

Brief outline of the course:

Cultural and social relations in Slovakia in the period of literary classicism and sentimentalism. National revival in Slovak literature. Theoretical foundations of European classicistic literature and the specific features of the first phase of Slovak literary classicism - enlightening character of poetry and prose. The functional orientation and genre composition of literature. Ideological and aesthetical values in the works of A. Doležal, J. Fándly, J.I. Bajza. Theoretical foundations and manifestations of sentimentalism in the second phase of Slovak literary classicism - the most significant representatives (J. Kollár, J. Hollý), the idea of the Slavic mutuality. Biedermeier in Slovak classicism. Beginnings of Slovak dramatic literature (J. Chalupka).

Theoretical foundations of European romanticism and specific features of Slovak romantic literature, relation between romantic literature and the folk literature. The social, political and aesthetical program of Slovak romantic generation. Typological personalities of the particular representatives of Slovak romantic prose and poetry. Specific features of the period between romanticism and realism. Basic developmental tendencies of Slovak literary realism in the background of the social situation in the last third of the 19th century. Romantic literary tradition and the founding generation of realists (S. H. Vajanský, P.O. Hviezdoslav, M. Kukučín, E.M. Šoltésová, T. Vansová). Literature as the expression of the modern conflict between the individual and social pressures. Subjectivization and orientation towards the modern by the younger generation of realistic authors (the prose of B.S. Timrava, the prose and drama of J.G. Tajovský, the poetry of Ľ. Podjavorinská).

Learning objectives: The students will acquaint themselves with the key question of the political development in Slovakia in individual historical periods of the first half of the 20th century. They will be able to understand the influence of political history on the social and economic development in the context of Austria-Hungary, the First Czechoslovak Republic and the first Slovak Republic (1939-1945). They will be able to utilize the knowledge and skills from the political history in extended courses from Slovak and general history. The complex understanding of the Slovak political history of the first half of the 20th century will help students with the writing of the papers and they will be able to apply the acquired knowledge when writing a bachelor thesis. When writing a bachelor thesis, the students become specialists on the given political event. Students will be able to apply acquired theoretical and methodological knowledge from historiography in the area of political history when they need to address challenges in historical research or need to publish the results of their research in a scholarly text.

Number of credits: 10
Recommended semester/trimester: 5., 6..
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The state examination consists of an oral discussion-based defence of the bachelor's thesis. The state examination committee comprehensively evaluates the quality of the bachelor's thesis based on the assessments and student's defence of the thesis. The defence of the bachelor's thesis is based on an oral discussion, questions formulated to encompass a more broadly conceived problem related to the bachelor's thesis. The solution of this problem requires that the student has the necessary knowledge listed in the theses for the state examination. These are based on the socio-scientific, psychological-pedagogical and subject-didactic context of the field. The conditions for receiving the assessment A to E from the committee, after taking the content of the state examination into account, are specified in the theses for the state examination.
b) final assessment: State examination with an oral discussion-based defence of the final thesis: 100 points
Learning objectives: By passing the state examination and defending the bachelor's thesis students will be able: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: At the beginning of the semester, the student gets acquainted with the study regulations and maps the needs of students over whom he has taken over the tutoring. After consultations with the department's study advisor, he/she will prepare a plan of creative activities in order to increase students' awareness. During the semester, he implements information activities, which he/she evaluates at the end of the semester in the form of a report and self-reflection. a) continuous assessment: Analysis and evaluation of suggestions/needs/problems: 0 - 20 points, preparation of activities: 0 - 25 points, implementation of activities: 0 - 25 points, total: 0 - 70 points. b) final assessment: Preparation of the final self-evaluation report on the implemented activities and their results with relevant annexes (plan of activities, promotion, list of participants, photo documentation) and recommendations 0-30 points.
Learning objectives: Student: 1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the students; 2. is able to communicate appropriately in the student community; 3. is able to independently organize consulting activities; 4. applies knowledge of the academic environment in counseling; 5. creates a communication platform on the social network and uses it effectively; 6. is able to evaluate student stimuli; 7. is able to assess appropriate forms of promotion of its activities; 8. is able to evaluate the benefits of their creative activities and present their results.
Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the departmental coordinators of ECTS in the study counseling and informing of students in study matters arising from the study regulations and valid legislation. As part of the self-study, they will get acquainted with the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, he/she provides students with advice on the selection of subjects and the compilation of the study plan in AiS2. He/she shares with students his/her experience with the selection and provision of study literature, preparation for exams, with the possibility of individual study, obtaining scholarships or participating in the activities of student organizations. The tutor maps, analyzes and evaluates the needs of students (e.g. in the form of an online questionnaire). In cooperation with the department's study advisor or with other tutors he/she prepares presentations and discussions, which he/she effectively promotes. The tutor informs students about important dates in the study schedule. He/she collects suggestions from students, evaluates them and communicates study problems with responsible staff. Suitable platforms on social networks are used for communication.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 1d-his-221	Course name: The phenomenon of revolutions in the history of the early modern period
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Seminar Course type: B (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: During the semester, students will analyse the source and/or specialized text about the subject's topic and will have to actively participate during the lessons (max. 3 permitted absences). After the semester completion, they will prepare a seminar work to the extent of 10 – 15 pages, or the Powerpoint presentation to the extent of 20 slides. The course assessment corresponds to the A-FX grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points out of possible 100.
a) continuous assessment: Active participation in the lessons – 20 %. Paper presentation – 30 %
b) final assessment: Seminar paper – 50%
Learning objectives: After the course completion, students should better understand the important historical events in the period of the Early Modern Period, which are usually described as revolutions in the specialized literature. They will be informed about their causes, inside development, wider context of the development and the overall meaning in the example of five selected revolutions. The paper (or Powerpoint presentation) preparation should help students to clearly understand the observed factors. The paper's/presentation's content will be an analysis of the selected historical source or specialized scientific study. Finally, they will also prepare a final seminar paper, in which they will have the task of critically analysing the selected problem of a concrete revolutionary event. These tasks will help develop the students' critical thinking and ability to interpret historical events objectively.
Brief outline of the course: During five meetings, students will be informed about the historical causes and results of the most important revolutions in the period of the Early Modern Period (16th – 18th centuries). The following historical events will be discussed: the German Reformation as a religious and social revolution (1500 -1555); the Dutch War of Independence (1566 – 1648); the English Civil War or the fight of the Parliament against the King (1640 – 1660); the American Revolution as a fight for national and political self-determination (1763 – 1783); the Great French Revolution as a fight for human rights (1789 – 1799).
