Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 4.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The student participates in at least five projects. Each project is worth 20 p. The student can collect max. 100 p. Grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.
a) continuous assessment: - Active participation in project organisation involving foreign MBU students as the target group. Preparation of a database, schedule, and budget for the activities. - Creating and evaluating an online survey before and after the semester focused on foreign students' needs and their satisfaction. - Providing tutoring to foreign students during the semester.
b) final assessment: A portfolio of materials related to the projects organised: - report - photo documentation list of the students involved.
Learning objectives: Upon completion, the student has developed practical experience with organising activities focused on foreign students. They know and use correct university-related terminology in foreign languages. They have developed specific competences necessary to perform their job related to the promotion of civic engagement and public service. They can independently identify the default situation, activity goals, steps towards their achievement, schedule, problems; find partners; determine appropriate promotion methods; draft the budget; identify the needs of the participants; perform and evaluate activities. They have learned how to motivate other students to participate in volunteering and develop intercultural understanding.
Brief outline of the course: In terms of volunteering, students actively participate in the MBU Erasmus Student Network. It is a non-profit student organisation that represents foreign students thus creating opportunities for the development of intercultural understanding and personal development. It is based on peer help.

Volunteers help organise educational and leisure activities as well as competitions for the foreign students from MBU partner universities. They help the foreign students integrate into the community and other MBU student organisations.

Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: At the beginning of the semester, the student reads the study regulations and identifies the needs of students who need tutorship. Upon consulting with the department study advisor, the student creates a plan of awareness raising activities. During the semester, the student performs awareness raising activities. Upon completion of the semester, they draft a self-reflective evaluation report. a) continuous assessment: analysis and evaluation of complaints/needs/issues: 0–20 p. Preparation of activities: 0–25 p. Implementation of these activities: 0–25 p. Total: 0–70 p. b) final assessment: completing the final self-reflective evaluation report addressing the activities performed and their results including the relevant appendices (activity plan, promotion, list of attendees, photo documentation), and recommendations 0–30 p. The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points (%).
Learning objectives: The student: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the tutored students 2. can communicate properly within the student community 3. can independently provide consulting activities 4. navigates the academic environment well enough to provide useful advice 5. creates a communication platform on a social network and uses it efficiently 6. can evaluate other students' needs 7. can select appropriate forms of promotion of their activities 8. can evaluate the benefit of their creative activities and present their results.
Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the department ECTS coordinators in consulting and providing information on study issues to students in accordance with the study rules and valid legislation.

They self-study the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, they arrange meetings with new students at the beginning of the academic year. They inform the new students about life at the university, their rights and responsibilities, and explain the principles of credit study. They advise students on the selection of courses and creation of study plans in AiS2. They share their own experience with the selection and acquisition of study literature, studying for exams, individual study possibilities, scholarships, and participating in student organisations. They identify, analyse, and evaluate the tutored students' needs (e.g. via an online survey). In cooperation with the department study advisor and other student tutors, they prepare informational presentations and discussions, and promotes them. They inform other students on important dates in the academic schedule. They collect complaints and ideas, evaluate, and communicate them to the responsible staff. They communicate via an appropriate social media platform as well.

Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.
Level: II.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: In the course of the semester students will prepare for seminars and will be assessed based on their activity at the seminars (max. 41 points), they will write a paper on an assigned topic (max. 24 points) which they will later present during the seminar and they will defend their final seminar paper (max. 35 points). The course assessment corresponds to the A-FX grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points out of a possible 100. a) continuous assessment: a) continuous assessment: Continuous assessment will contain the following: active participation, the student's preparedness for each seminar, the level of content and presentation of the paper. b) final assessment: Final seminar paper (max. 35 points).
Learning objectives: . The course does not focus on the acquisition of facts presented in the traditional history of events but rather on the acquisition of knowledge through anthropological and semantic methods and based on a multi-perspective approach. 2. Students will be led to analyse the abstract symbolic aspects of life and historical memory in the context of neighbouring cultures, which will allow them to recognize less apparent but essential facets of national and civil formation processes in the 19th century. 3. Students will develop a deeper, more structured and less conventional image of the Slovak national identity formation (and neighbouring nations), they will understand the vigour and limits of modern nationalism, as well as specific aspects of the development of Slovak society that determined its historical memory and mentality during the 20th century.
Brief outline of the course: 1. The concept of modern national identity. Factors and tools of its formation and establishment. 2. The changes in historiography – formation of national historiographies and transformation of historical memory. Historicism as a tool of national emancipation. 3. Historical concepts of Slovak history in the 19th century – between the idea of the Hungarian Empire and the idea of a thousand-year oppression.

4. Great Moravia and its rise to a national symbol.
5. National symbols, the specific elements of symbols. Theoretical definition of symbols and national symbols, their functions, forms, structure, determinants.
6. Creators, bearers and recipients of symbols. Symbols and stereotypes, celebrations, myths.
7. Historical and natural symbols. An intimate understanding of one's own country.
8. Leading figures as symbols and their celebrations.
9. Folk culture vs. high culture in pursuit of one's own symbols.
10. History and presence of heraldic symbols and anthems.
11. The role of the state and political power in the formation of historical memory and world of national symbols. Their marginalization.
12. Radical changes in memory and symbology after 1918.
