Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-rus-218    Course name: Comparative Phraseology

Type, extent and method of instruction:

Form of instruction: Seminar

Course type: B (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods: 26

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 5

Recommended semester/trimester: 3.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

During the semester, the student completes and submits homework and takes a written test. After completing the semester, the student takes the final oral and written exams. The maximum number of points consisting of continuous and final assessment is 100. The student has the right to one resit. Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements. The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%).

a) continuous assessment:

Completing homework: 0–15 p.

Presentation: 0–20 p.

Seminar paper preparation: 0–15 p.

Test: 0–25 p.

b) final assessment:

Oral and written final exams: 0–40 p. (written part: 0–20 p.; oral part: 0–20 p.)

Learning objectives:

The student has systematic knowledge of Russian vs. Slovak phraseology. The subject matter is presented diachronously and in a broader social, cultural, and pragmatic context. The student can compare the Slovak vs. Russian approaches to phraseology. They understand the scholarly and phraseographic paradigms (Slovak vs. Russian scholars and dictionary authors). They understand the diachronous and synchronous relationships between the Russian and Slovak languages in terms of phraseology. They use this knowledge to further develop their linguistic, scholarly, and cultural literacy as the core of their future profession. The student applies this knowledge in practice. The student masters the Russian phraseological minimum, can identify translation equivalents, identify partial equivalence and appropriate solutions. They know how to transpose phraseologisms without direct equivalents. The student knows and uses phraseological and bilingual dictionaries. They expand their theoretical knowledge of contrastive phraseology and continues to develop practical habits related to idiom translation.

Brief outline of the course:

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

a) continuous assessment:

- completing pedagogical practice - observations and individual reports.

b) final assessment:

Material portfolio from pedagogical practice:

- written reports from the didactic observations of the teaching classes - observations by the supervising teacher and observations of the student's colleagues.

- written preparations for the direct teaching activity, including the didactic analysis of the curriculum.

- the student's own evaluation of the pedagogical practice - report from the practice including suggestions and recommendations.

- written evaluations of the particularly taught teaching lessons by the supervising teacher (the assessment is written on an assessment sheet in which the supervising teacher comments on particular parts of the teaching process).

The maximum number of points obtained from the continuous and final assessment is 100.

The overall final assessment comes out from the sum of the part from the continuous and final assessment and is based on the grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points for fulfilling certain conditions.

Requirements and recommended literature are updated every year in the course's syllables.

Learning objectives:

The student will be able to:

1. Integrate the heterogeneous practical experience which he/she acquired during the previous practice with new conditions and links the student did not know before.
2. Have the opportunity to comprehensively observe the work of Slovak language and literature teachers with students in various types of schools.
3. Comprehensively learn the activity of a teacher.
4. Learn the particular educational situations formed during and outside of the teaching process.
5. Acquire activities and perform tasks near to the requirements of an actual teaching job, including outer teaching activities.

Brief outline of the course:

Continuous teaching practice is considered the highest, complex and integrating form of the practical preparation of students from pedagogical faculties. The content of the continuous pedagogical practice is the preparation of a teaching lesson project on language, writing and literary components from the Slovak Language and Literature course in lower and higher secondary education according to the instructions from the supervising teachers, consulting the preparation with the supervising teacher and then consequently leading the teaching lesson by himself/herself.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-ksc-201    Course name: Cultural and social inclusion of foreign students 1

Type, extent and method of instruction:

Form of instruction:

Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods:

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

The student has to participate in at least 5 projects. Each project is worth 20 p. The student can score the total of 100 p.

Grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%), FX (64%–0%).

Credits are assigned to the student who acquires the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.

a) continuous assessment: Active participation in project organisation focused on foreign students enrolled in MBU programmes.

b) final assessment: A portfolio of materials pertaining to the projects organised – a written report.

Learning objectives:

The student gains practical experience with organising activities for foreign students (persons with other than Slovak citizenship officially studying at MBU). The student knows and correctly uses the academic terminology. Volunteering provides the student with an opportunity to pursue their interests and learn how to manage their free time while feeling self-fulfilled and useful. The student feels that their work is meaningful. It allows them to improve their self-confidence and self-evaluation. They acquire new friends, knowledge, experience, and skills and improve their foreign language skills. They gain intercultural and international experience.

Brief outline of the course:

The student actively participates in educational, cultural, sports, and other interest-based activities for the community of foreign MBU students. The student helps organise educational activities, provides consulting to fresh students, organises free-time activities and competitions for the foreign MBU students. The student helps integrate their foreign peers into MBU student organisations and provides them with information on further educational possibilities offered by MBU.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-esn-200    Course name: ESN MBU Volunteer 1

Type, extent and method of instruction:

Form of instruction:

Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods:

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester: 1.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

The student participates in at least five projects. Each project is worth 20 p. The student can collect max. 100 p. Grading scale:

A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.

a) continuous assessment:

- Active participation in project organisation involving foreign MBU students as the target group. Preparation of a database, schedule, and budget for the activities.
- Creating and evaluating an online survey before and after the semester focused on foreign students' needs and their satisfaction.
- Providing tutoring to foreign students during the semester.

b) final assessment:

A portfolio of materials related to the projects organised:

- report
- photo documentation
- list of the students involved.

Learning objectives:

Upon completion, the student has developed practical experience with organising activities focused on foreign students. They know and use correct university-related terminology in foreign languages. They have developed specific competences necessary to perform their job related to the promotion of civic engagement and public service. They can independently identify the default situation, activity goals, steps towards their achievement, schedule, problems; find partners; determine appropriate promotion methods; draft the budget; identify the needs of the participants; perform and evaluate activities. They have learned how to motivate other students to participate in volunteering and develop intercultural understanding.

Brief outline of the course:

In terms of volunteering, students actively participate in the MBU Erasmus Student Network. It is a non-profit student organisation that represents foreign students thus creating opportunities for the development of intercultural understanding and personal development.

It is based on peer help. Volunteers help organise educational and leisure activities as well as competitions for the foreign students from MBU partner universities. They help the foreign students integrate into the community and other MBU student organisations.

Learning objectives:

Upon completion, the student has developed practical experience with organising activities focused on foreign students. They know and use correct university-related terminology in foreign languages. They have developed specific competences necessary to perform their job related to the promotion of civic engagement and public service. They can independently identify the default situation, activity goals, steps towards their achievement, schedule, problems; find partners; determine appropriate promotion methods; draft the budget; identify the needs of the participants; perform and evaluate activities. They have learned how to motivate other students to participate in volunteering and develop intercultural understanding.

Brief outline of the course:

In terms of volunteering, students actively participate in the MBU Erasmus Student Network. It is a non-profit student organisation that represents foreign students thus creating opportunities for the development of intercultural understanding and personal development. It is based on peer help.

Volunteers help organise educational and leisure activities as well as competitions for the foreign students from MBU partner universities. They help the foreign students integrate into the community and other MBU student organisations.

Form of instruction: Seminar

Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods: 13

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester: 2.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

The students will take part in a preliminary assessment (a test). After the semester students will take part in the final written exam. The maximum number of points for the continuous and final assessment is 100. Credits will be assigned to the student who acquires a minimal 65 out of 100 points for the fulfilment of the given conditions. Credits will not be assigned to the student who will fail to submit the preliminary test during semester or gaining less than 10 points, being a part of preliminary assessment. The student has the right to resit the preliminary test and one resit of the final written exam. The evaluation will be based on the ECTS grading scale: A (100-94%), B (93-87%), C (86-80%), D (79- 73%), E (72- 65%)

Learning objectives:

Irish Language will explore basic conversational Irish phrases, common vocabulary, as well as basic grammar and phonology so as to enable students to form and correctly pronounce grammatical sentences with independently-learned vocabulary.

Irish Language 1 aims to give students;

- an ability to read and pronounce Irish as pronounced by native Irish-speakers
- a knowledge of the International Phonetic Alphabet as applied to Irish
- a knowledge of basic Irish vocabulary
- a knowledge of basic Irish grammar and grammatical terminology
- an ability to form basic grammatical sentences involving various parts of speech (prepositions, pronouns, nouns, adjectives, verbs, adverbs, etc.)

Type, extent and method of instruction:

Form of instruction: Lecture / Seminar

Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods: 0 / 26

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

The student undergoes theoretical preparation to understand the point of service learning as a strategy and develops the selected competences (team work, planning, promotion, evaluation). They actively participate in the identification of community needs and presents the findings. Based on this, the student describes the default situation in which the service learning activity will take place and consults it with the instructor. Subsequently, the student drafts their service learning project (default situation, service goals, educational goals, schedule, information of partners, promotion, funding, evaluation methods). The project draft is, again, consulted with the instructor.

The student selects the target group and project goals in accordance with their study field and focuses on developing their own text-work competences as well.

This course builds on the Literature and Service learning 1 course and enhances the theoretical knowledge of service learning.

a) continuous assessment:

- (10) Active participation in block classes (3 blocks)
- (10) Consultations
- (10) Flexibility and appropriate communication
- (20) Identification of the needs and formulation of the goals
- (20) Quality of the project draft (the plan form)

b) final assessment:

Based on the continuous assessment (70%), self-assessment (15%), group assessment (15%).

The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). To collect the credits, the student has to score at least 65% in each activity (or at least 65% in total).

Learning objectives:

Upon completion of this course, the student

1. can explain the point of service learning
2. can work in a team and communicate in an appropriate way
3. can analyse their own needs as well as the needs of the community
4. can formulate the service learning goals based on these needs
5. can prepare a service learning project addressing actual needs and achieve the goals specified
6. understands the importance of personal and social responsibility and civic engagement

Brief outline of the course:

1. The point of service learning.
2. Team work and communication competence development.
3. Identifying the community needs.
4. How to determine the service and educational goals.
5. Planning as a competence – importance, steps.
6. Time management – importance and principles.
7. Promotion before and after the activity takes place.
8. How to evaluate the activities.
9. Service learning project draft.
10. Service learning project draft – evaluation.

Type, extent and method of instruction:

Form of instruction: Lecture / Seminar

Course type: B (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods: 13 / 13

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 5

Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

a) continuous assessment:

short text interpretation ( $4 \times 2.5 = 10$  p.)

seminar paper ( $2 \times 10 = 20$  p.)

b) final assessment: written test focused on the selected topics.

The maximum number of points consisting of continuous and final assessment is 100. Credits are assigned to the student who acquires the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.

Credits will not be awarded to a student who scores less than 10 points in the continuous assessment. The student has the right to one resit.

The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%).

Credits are assigned to the student who acquires the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.

a) continuous assessment:

See the course completion conditions.

b) final assessment:

See the course completion conditions.

Learning objectives:

The student enhances their pragmatic study of the selected texts addressing literary studies, which influence literature teaching in schools. They can identify the typical subject-didactic consequences of selecting specific methodological platforms from the major directions, schools, and currents in literary studies. They understand the relationships between contradictory methodological and subject-didactic viewpoints and can compare them. The student can critically evaluate the selected texts addressing literary studies and reflect on them from the viewpoint of teaching Slovak language and literature. They improve their ability to analyse the material and formulate opinions. They learn how to evaluate different professional approaches and verify their justification, evaluate their own arguments and the efficiency of teaching methods. The student learns how to design school literary education based on multiple methodological viewpoints and follows the development of methodology in literary studies. They develop their own professional profile based on the possibilities provided by up-to-date literary studies.

Brief outline of the course:

Literary studies – P. V. Zima's classification of approaches and their subject-didactic consequences: literary studies between Hegel and Kant.

- Marxism and Russian formalism.
- M. Bakhtin.
- The critical theory of the Frankfurt School (T. Adorno)
- Prague structuralism.
- Reader-response criticism (Konstanzer School), phenomenological literary studies.
- Semiotic approaches (R. Barthés, U. Eco, A. Greimas).
- Deconstruction.
- Critical and dialogic literary studies (P. V. Zima).

Zima's model of thinking in literary studies, the plurality of approaches in Slovak literary studies and subject didactics.

Selected relevant scholarly publications – reading, commenting, analysis (T. Adorno, M. M. Bachtin, R. Barthes, A. Compagnon, J. Culler, J. Derrida, U. Eco, R. Ingarden, W. Iser, R. Jakobson, H. R. Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

a) continuous assessment:

short text interpretation ( $4 \times 2.5 = 10$  p.)

seminar paper ( $2 \times 10 = 20$  p.)

b) final assessment: written test focused on the selected topics.

The maximum number of points consisting of continuous and final assessment is 100. Credits are assigned to the student who acquires the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.

Credits will not be awarded to a student who scores less than 10 points in the continuous assessment. The student has the right to one resit. The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements.

a) continuous assessment:

See the course completion conditions.

b) final assessment:

See the course completion conditions.

Learning objectives:

The student enhances their pragmatic study of the selected texts addressing literary studies and transdisciplinary texts which influence literature teaching in schools. They can identify the typical subject-didactic consequences of selecting specific methodological platforms from the more recent directions, schools, and currents in literary studies. They understand the relationships between contradictory methodological and subject-didactic viewpoints and can compare them. The student can critically evaluate the selected (transdisciplinary) texts addressing literary studies and reflect on them from the viewpoint of teaching Slovak language and literature. They improve their ability to analyse the material and formulate opinions. They learn how to evaluate different professional approaches and verify their justification, evaluate their own arguments and the efficiency of teaching methods. They learn to approach literary education through combining multiple interlinked perspectives and viewpoints, and to design school literary education based on multiple methodological viewpoints and follows the development of methodology in literary studies and the related disciplines.

They develop their own professional profile based on the possibilities provided by up-to-date literary studies.

Brief outline of the course:

More recent transdisciplinary directions in the methodology of literary studies and related fields, and their current and potential impact on school literary education.

- Cognitive literary studies (M. Turner).
- Empirical literary studies and media culture as a scholarly field (S. Schmidt)
- New historism, cultural studies, feminism.
- Biologising (ethology and sociobiology), psychologising, (psychoanalysis, C. G. Jung, evolutionary psychology) and sociologising (L. Bourdieu) trends in transdisciplinarity with the impact on literary education in schools.
- "Digital humanities".
- Literary education, individual and collective identities (F. Fukuyama, I. Krastev).
- The importance of school literary education and democracy (M. C. Nussbaum, R. Rorty, Z. Kusá).
- Literary education and transdisciplinary research of empathy (S. Baroque Cohen, F. de Waal, J. Rifkin)

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-rus-227

Course name: State Examination Diploma Thesis and Defence

Type, extent and method of instruction:

Form of instruction:

Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods:

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 20

Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 4..

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

Completion of all compulsory, elective, and voluntary courses in the study programme as required to achieve min. 100 credits.

The student's performance during the state examination is graded on the scale A-E by the State Examination Commission.

b) final assessment:

The state examination includes the Diploma thesis (DT) defence. The State Examination Commission provides a complex evaluation of the DT's quality based on the reviews and student's thesis defence. DT defence takes the form of a colloquium addressing the broader context of the subject matter addressed in DT. The student is required to prove their knowledge of the subject matter acquired during the study (pedagogy, psychology, subject didactics) as well as their communication skills in the Russian language.

Learning objectives:

By passing the state exam and defending their diploma thesis, the student proves that they:

1)

understand the broader context of the problem addressed in their DT

2)

- understand the context of the investigated subject matter

- can formulate clear conclusions from the thesis and recommendations for practice

- understand how the disciplines they studied at university are linked

3)

- can use relevant scientific sources and identifies important ideas for the context of the thesis

- can use theoretical knowledge of the research topic in practical diagnostics, didactics, and research methodology

- can use the broader pedagogical, psychological, and social contexts to explain the subject matter
- can follow the bibliographic and citation standards .

4)

- have successfully organised their DT project into logical, systematic, and mutually linked parts

- can design and verify theological programmes applied to the subject matter addressed in their thesis, design and implement research, and interpret its results

- can use the theoretical knowledge of the subject matter in a logical and critical way, in contexts, in specialised communication in Russian, argumentation, and justification of their opinion on the subject matter.

5)

- can create a consistent specialised text addressing theory and didactics, which works with the relevant specialised sources in a creative way, presents the author's original ideas and proposed solutions

Brief outline of the course:

Expert knowledge of the DT topic, its international, social, pedagogical and psychological contexts. Didactic transformation of the selected theoretical knowledge of their specialisation. Integrating the knowledge from different disciplines to tackle the research topic in a broader theoretical context. Integrating the theory and didactics of Russian language and literature to tackle the DT subject matter. Specialised communication and argumentation. Working with literature, bibliographic and citation standards.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-smg-01    Course name: State Examination – Diploma Thesis and Defence

Type, extent and method of instruction:

Form of instruction:

Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)

Recommended number of periods:

Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 20

Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 4..

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:

Completion of all compulsory courses in the study programme.

Completion of elective and voluntary courses in the quantity prescribed for the study programme (min. 100 credits).

Final assessment: The state exam consists of two parts:

(1) Diploma thesis (DT) defence. The DT supervisor and opponent create reviews and propose assessment. The State Examination Commission provides a complex evaluation of the DT's quality based on the reviews and student's thesis defence.

(2) The state examination also includes a specialised discussion (Methodological Instruction on the State Examination, 2022). During the discussion, the student responds to questions addressing the broader context of their DT subject matter to prove they have the knowledge pertaining to the state examination topics. These topics address the subject didactics, basics of social sciences, pedagogy, and psychology in the psychodidactic context of education.

The conditions for obtaining grades A to E take into account both parts of the state examination. They are specified in the current state examination topics.

Learning objectives:

1. The student has advanced knowledge and understanding of the subject matter addressed in the Diploma thesis including its broader context. They can formulate clear conclusions and practical recommendations. The student has developed systematic knowledge of the individual disciplines addressed during their university study.

2. In accordance with the field of study description, the student is required to prove the following (especially in the core curriculum disciplines – pedagogical psychology and social sciences) knowledge: 1) theoretical knowledge 2) practical skills and the ability to apply them in teaching the selected target group of students by providing a specific example of modelling the selected didactic variables in the general psychodidactic context (in accordance with the pedagogical and psychological disciplines that were part of the study).

3. In accordance with the field of study description, the student is required to prove the following knowledge of Slovak language teaching didactics, teaching basic writing, and literature didactics in the context of linguistics and literary studies: 1) theoretical knowledge, 2) practical skills and the ability to apply them in teaching at primary and secondary schools by providing a specific example of modelling the selected didactic variables in teaching Slovak language and literature as an academic subject (in accordance with the linguistic, literary studies, and didactic courses that were part of the study).

4. The student can identify relevant specialised sources as well as the ideas important for the context of their thesis. They have theoretical knowledge of the research topic in practical diagnostic and didactic contexts. They understand the research methodology, and the broader pedagogical, psychological, and social context of the problem. The student follows the bibliographic and citation standards.

5. The student can analyse the subject matter and arrange it into logically and systematically separated and interconnected structural parts of the thesis, design and verify the didactic procedures applied to the subject matter addressed in their thesis, design and implement research, and interpret its results. They can use the theory critically, synthesize the contextual knowledge, and use it in specialised communication, i.e. argumentation and defence of their opinion on the subject matter.

6. The student creates a consistent specialised text (focused on theory/didactics or theory/research) in which they approach the relevant specialised sources in a critical manner and uses the relevant sources in a creative way.

They can creatively process the relevant specialised sources, offer own original ideas and ways of addressing the subject matter.

The credits will be assigned to the student who acquires a minimum of 65 points out of the possible 100 for completing the given requirements. The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%).

a) continuous assessment:

Completing homework: 0–15 p.

Test: 0–25 p.

Seminar paper preparation: 0–20 p.

b) final assessment:

Oral and written final exams: 0–40 p. (written part: 0–25 p.; oral part: 0–20 p.)

Learning objectives:

The student understands Russian on the macrosyntactic level and perceives syntax as a functional component of the language system. They know and use the respective concepts and terminology, and understand that this is core knowledge and a necessity in any foreign language study (language teaching as well as translation). The student understands how the language relates to the cultural and social development and national cultural sovereignty. They understand the social position and function of the Russian language in the broader social, cultural, and pragmatic contexts and how these compare to the Slovak realities. They can apply this specialised knowledge in practice (Slovak vs. Russian comparative viewpoint) to develop communication-pragmatic competences and skills related to the analysis and creation of different types of texts in Russian, and to cultivate their interpretation skills useful in a variety of communication situations. The student understands the generalisations and systematically develops their communication and cultural competences. They also understand the information on the formal as well as semantic levels. They can describe texts as speech units in terms of linguistics, textocentrism, pragmatism, and cognitive aspects. The student understands the principles of text analysis and can use them in practice to characterise a text in terms of linguistics, semantics, and composition. They master the analytic methods and text creation principles, can analyse the linguistic specificities of a text (use and purpose).

Brief outline of the course:

Text linguistics as a discipline and academic subject.
 History of text linguistics.
 Structure of a scholarly text. Composition (paragraphs).
