University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 1d-ajs-308	Course name: English Language Teaching through Community Partnership 1
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Practical Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: To successfully complete the course, students must: • actively participate in group meetings; • plan and deliver English lessons in collaboration with a community partner; • write an initial reflection and a reflection after each lesson; • regularly review progress towards their goals and write a final reflection on their experiences and personal development.
Learning objectives: Upon completion of the course, students will be able to: • integrate theory and practice in English language teaching; • plan and deliver lessons in collaboration with a community partner; • design inclusive, practical activities tailored to the needs of the community; • reflect on their own experiences and propose ways to improve their teaching.
Brief outline of the course: The introductory session focuses on the principles of service learning and education for the 21st century. It includes an initial written reflection on students' individual learning goals. From October onwards, students plan and deliver English lessons in collaboration with a community partner, for example as part of an extracurricular activity at a primary school. Throughout the practical component, students reflect in writing on the lessons they teach. Halfway through the semester, they review their experiences and progress towards their goals as a group. The course concludes with a written reflection on student's own learning and the development of their teaching skills.

Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Seminar Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Recommended semester/trimester: 2., 4., 6.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: attendance at lectures
Learning objectives: The student: 1. understands the importance of intellectual property in business activities. 2. understands the basic framework of intellectual property law in the Slovak Republic, the EU, and at the regional/international level, including the costs associated with its protection. 3. is able to identify the creation of intellectual property within a company and establish basic processes for its protection. 4. is capable of selecting an optimal intellectual property protection strategy with regard to the type of product/service. 5. is able to apply the basic principles of intellectual property commercialization. 6. is able to identify and prevent infringements of the intellectual property rights of other entities.
Brief outline of the course: The aim of the course is to provide students with theoretical and practical knowledge of intellectual property and the importance of its protection in business practice. The course focuses on the creation of intellectual property within a company, strategies for its protection, and possibilities for its effective use and commercialization. It also addresses the significance and benefits arising from intellectual property protection for current and future entrepreneurs, as well as examples of good practice. Experts in the field of intellectual property and industrial property protection will introduce students to the possibilities of protecting brands, ideas, innovations, designs, patents, and copyrighted works, including computer programs and software. Students will gain knowledge about when and how intellectual property should be protected in Slovakia and abroad, how it can be commercialized, and how intellectual property rights can be exercised, enforced, and respected in business activities. The course will also include practical examples and analyses of disputes concerning patents, trademarks, designs, and software based on cases from the practice of the Industrial Property Office of the Slovak Republic. Experts from the Industrial Property Office of the Slovak Republic will participate in the lectures.

Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: a) Attendance and active participation in classes, with a maximum permitted absence of one 160-minute session – 30% b) Submission of partial assignments for each thematic area – 10% c) Final group presentation on a selected topic from the course syllabus, demonstrating the ability to apply the acquired skills to specific real-life situations, including feedback to team members – 60% If a student does not successfully complete the course in the regular assessment period, they will be required to complete an individual assignment and subsequently present their work in a form determined by the examiner, accounting for 100% of the final assessment.
Learning objectives: The course focuses on the development of key transferable skills, including soft skills and power skills, required for graduates' successful transition into professional practice in companies, shared service centres, consulting firms, financial institutions and the public sector. In cooperation with the American Chamber of Commerce in the Slovak Republic, AmCham Slovakia, and participating business entities, the course reflects current employer expectations regarding graduates of economics-oriented study programmes. Particular emphasis is placed on business communication, teamwork, problem-solving, working with information, and decision-making under uncertainty. Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to: • communicate effectively in a professional and multicultural working environment, including communication in English; • work in teams and contribute to solving practical business-related problems, such as process improvements, customer situations and project-based tasks; • argue, present proposed solutions and defend their opinions based on data and facts; • handle feedback, conflict situations and performance pressure in the workplace; • apply basic principles of critical thinking, decision-making and time management in economic and managerial practice; • operate effectively in the environment of shared service centres, business service centres and the corporate culture of international companies.

The course was developed in cooperation with the American Chamber of Commerce in the Slovak Republic, AmCham Slovakia, and the Banská Bystrica Self-Governing Region. The Slovak version of the course will be delivered by professional soft-skills lecturers, such as Learning and Development Managers, Education Specialists and Certified Coaches, from companies associated within the Business Service Center Forum, BSCF, of AmCham Slovakia, including Accenture, IBM, GAMO, GlobalLogic, KPMG and potentially other companies.

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 1d-ass-002	Course name: State Examination Bachelor's Thesis Defence
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 10
Recommended semester/trimester: 5., 6..
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The conditions for receiving the assessment A to E from the committee, after taking the content of the state examination into account, are specified in the syllabi for the state examination. b) final assessment: Final assessment: The state examination has two parts: (1) Defence of the bachelor thesis. The supervisor of the bachelor's thesis and the opponent will write a review of the thesis and propose an evaluation. The State Examination Committee comprehensively evaluates the quality of the bachelor's thesis on the basis of the reviews and the student's defence of the thesis. (2) The State Examination includes a colloquium debate (Methodological Instructions for the State Examination, 2022). In the colloquium, the student responds to the formulated questions and topics in the form of a more broadly conceived problem related to the bachelor's thesis, the solution of which requires the student's knowledge of the issues presented in the syllabi for the state examination. These are based on a disciplinary-didactic foundation in relation to the broader psychodidactic context of education.
Learning objectives: 1. The student understands the concept and processing of the individual parts of the bachelor thesis. He/she is oriented in the selection of the thesis topics, is familiar with the requirements for the bachelor thesis in terms of content and form. 2. The student is able to work with professional literary sources, can analyse the ideas of individual authors, paraphrase, compare and take own opinions on them. 3. The student evaluates and analyses, forms ideas into logical units, draws conclusions and makes recommendations for practice. 4. The student produces a bachelor's thesis focused on the given issue, according to the set requirements and can successfully prepare for the defence.
Brief outline of the course: According to the nature and focus of the thesis topic. Choice of the topic in cooperation with the supervisor of the bachelor thesis. Basic orientation in the literature - research, study of literature. Development of the basic outline of the thesis and the time plan of the thesis. Preparation of the bachelor thesis. Preparation of the bachelor thesis defence on the basis of the reviews of the opponent and the consultant. Integration of the knowledge of the individual courses completed in the bachelor's studies, according to the syllabi for the state examination. Professional communication and argumentation. Work with literature, bibliographic and citation standards.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 1d-bpo-004	Course name: State exam / Bachelor's thesis defence
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 10
Recommended semester/trimester: 5., 6..
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: The writing of a bachelor's thesis is one of the conditions for completion of the state examination. Finishing the bachelor's thesis is dependent on consultations of the thesis writing process with the supervisor (25 hrs in total). The bachelor's thesis must satisfy all formal and content criteria required for this type of work. The completion of the course is determined by the state examination committee, which will consider reviews of the bachelor's thesis from the opponent and supervisor, as well as the results of the thesis defence. The bachelor's thesis defence is assessed by all members of the committee with a grade range from A to FX. The evaluation will be in accordance to the level at which the problem and content of the thesis is presented and whether the questions posed in the review are sufficiently answered applying the core knowledge of the field of study during the discussion. The final grade for the defence is the average from all the grades given by individual members of the committee.
Learning objectives: Students will be able: - to learn about basic problems of the individual disciplines of systematic philosophy and their interrelations, - to acquaint themselves with key solutions to the problems, as well as with arguments and counter-arguments that either support or refute their stance, - to gain a basic understanding of the historical evolution of philosophy and understand the difference between the historical and systematic approach to philosophical problems, - to apply the knowledge during analysis of the issues addressed in the bachelor's thesis, - to identify key problems of the philosophical approaches analysed in the bachelor's thesis and reconstruct their reasoning when solving specific problems, - to adopt a critical standpoint to these solutions and identify flaws in reasoning, - to communicate their standpoints, conclusions, and assessments in written or verbal form and support them with sound arguments.
Brief outline of the course: 1. Selecting key works from specialised literature according to the topic of the bachelor's thesis together with the supervisor

2. Critical processing of selected publications with regard to the topic of the bachelor's thesis
3. Regular consultations of the emergent thesis with the supervisor of the bachelor's thesis
4. Writing the final version of the bachelor's thesis and submission for defence

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 1d-stu-801	Course name: Student Tutoring EN 1
Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: At the beginning of the semester, the student gets acquainted with the study regulations and maps the needs of students over whom he has taken over the tutoring. After consultations with the department's study advisor, he/she will prepare a plan of creative activities in order to increase students' awareness. During the semester, he implements information activities, which he/she evaluates at the end of the semester in the form of a report and self-reflection. a) continuous assessment: Analysis and evaluation of suggestions/needs/problems: 0 - 20 points, preparation of activities: 0 - 25 points, implementation of activities: 0 - 25 points, total: 0 - 70 points. b) final assessment: Preparation of the final self-evaluation report on the implemented activities and their results with relevant annexes (plan of activities, promotion, list of participants, photo documentation) and recommendations 0-30 points. The evaluation is performed according to the classification scale: A (100 - 94%), B (93 - 87%), C (86 - 80%), D (79 - 73%), E (72 - 65%). Credits will be awarded to a student who has obtained at least 65 out of 100 points.
Learning objectives: Student: 1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the students; 2. is able to communicate appropriately in the student community; 3. is able to independently organize consulting activities; 4. applies knowledge of the academic environment in counseling; 5. creates a communication platform on the social network and uses it effectively; 6. is able to evaluate student stimuli; 7. is able to assess appropriate forms of promotion of its activities; 8. is able to evaluate the benefits of their creative activities and present their results.
Brief outline of the course: The tutor cooperates with the departmental coordinators of ECTS in the study counseling and informing of students in study matters arising from the study regulations and valid legislation.

As part of the self-study, they will get acquainted with the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, he/she provides students with advice on the selection of subjects and the compilation of the study plan in AiS2. He/she shares with students his/her experience with the selection and provision of study literature, preparation for exams, with the possibility of individual study, obtaining scholarships or participating in the activities of student organizations. The tutor maps, analyzes and evaluates the needs of students (e.g. in the form of an online questionnaire). In cooperation with the department's study advisor or with other tutors he/she prepares presentations and discussions, which he/she effectively promotes. The tutor informs students about important dates in the study schedule. He/she collects suggestions from students, evaluates them and communicates study problems with responsible staff. Suitable platforms on social networks are used for communication.
