Number of credits: 3
Recommended semester/trimester: 2., 4., 6.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: attendance at lectures
Learning objectives: The student: 1. understands the importance of intellectual property in business activities. 2. understands the basic framework of intellectual property law in the Slovak Republic, the EU, and at the regional/international level, including the costs associated with its protection. 3. is able to identify the creation of intellectual property within a company and establish basic processes for its protection. 4. is capable of selecting an optimal intellectual property protection strategy with regard to the type of product/service. 5. is able to apply the basic principles of intellectual property commercialization. 6. is able to identify and prevent infringements of the intellectual property rights of other entities.
Brief outline of the course: The aim of the course is to provide students with theoretical and practical knowledge of intellectual property and the importance of its protection in business practice. The course focuses on the creation of intellectual property within a company, strategies for its protection, and possibilities for its effective use and commercialization. It also addresses the significance and benefits arising from intellectual property protection for current and future entrepreneurs, as well as examples of good practice. Experts in the field of intellectual property and industrial property protection will introduce students to the possibilities of protecting brands, ideas, innovations, designs, patents, and copyrighted works, including computer programs and software. Students will gain knowledge about when and how intellectual property should be protected in Slovakia and abroad, how it can be commercialized, and how intellectual property rights can be exercised, enforced, and respected in business activities. The course will also include practical examples and analyses of disputes concerning patents, trademarks, designs, and software based on cases from the practice of the Industrial Property Office of the Slovak Republic. Experts from the Industrial Property Office of the Slovak Republic will participate in the lectures.

Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Seminar Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 26 Method of study: combined
Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 5.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: a) Attendance and active participation in classes, with a maximum permitted absence of one 160-minute session – 30% b) Submission of partial assignments for each thematic area – 10% c) Final group presentation on a selected topic from the course syllabus, demonstrating the ability to apply the acquired skills to specific real-life situations, including feedback to team members – 60% If a student does not successfully complete the course in the regular assessment period, they will be required to complete an individual assignment and subsequently present their work in a form determined by the examiner, accounting for 100% of the final assessment.
Learning objectives: The course focuses on the development of key transferable skills, including soft skills and power skills, required for graduates' successful transition into professional practice in companies, shared service centres, consulting firms, financial institutions and the public sector. In cooperation with the American Chamber of Commerce in the Slovak Republic, AmCham Slovakia, and participating business entities, the course reflects current employer expectations regarding graduates of economics-oriented study programmes. Particular emphasis is placed on business communication, teamwork, problem-solving, working with information, and decision-making under uncertainty. Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to: • communicate effectively in a professional and multicultural working environment, including communication in English; • work in teams and contribute to solving practical business-related problems, such as process improvements, customer situations and project-based tasks; • argue, present proposed solutions and defend their opinions based on data and facts; • handle feedback, conflict situations and performance pressure in the workplace; • apply basic principles of critical thinking, decision-making and time management in economic and managerial practice; • operate effectively in the environment of shared service centres, business service centres and the corporate culture of international companies.

The course was developed in cooperation with the American Chamber of Commerce in the Slovak Republic, AmCham Slovakia, and the Banská Bystrica Self-Governing Region. The Slovak version of the course will be delivered by professional soft-skills lecturers, such as Learning and Development Managers, Education Specialists and Certified Coaches, from companies associated within the Business Service Center Forum, BSCF, of AmCham Slovakia, including Accenture, IBM, GAMO, GlobalLogic, KPMG and potentially other companies.

Type, extent and method of instruction: Form of instruction: Lecture / Seminar Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses) Recommended number of periods: 13 / 13 Method of study: combined
Number of credits: 5
Recommended semester/trimester: 1.
Level: I.
Prerequisites:
Course completion conditions: Continuous assessment: completion of the assigned seminar papers 60%. Final assessment: written exam 40%. a) continuous assessment: Completion of the tasks addressing the lecture topics (text reading and analysis) 30 %. Preparation of the seminar paper 30%.
Learning objectives: The student learns the basic concepts related to sociological analysis. They understand the term social structure on the micro level (primary social groups, family) on the middle level (organisations, social networks) and on the macro level (institutions, stratification). They learn about the sociological analysis of culture, deviation analysis, and the dynamics of social development in modern society. In terms of skills, the student can use these sociological concepts to analyse the ongoing processes. Based on understanding the concept of placement, they also understand the position of the social participants in social reality. In terms of competences, upon completion of the course, the student understands the structural context of human activities, can explain the basic relationships between actions and the social structure, can apply the basic sociological approach to explain current issues, and can explain these basic concepts to other audience as needed.
Brief outline of the course: 1: Sociology as an analysis of modern society 2: Culture and society, socialisation 3: Mass culture 4: The group-based structure of society and social networks 5: Inequality and social stratification 6: Work and organisations 7: Social control and deviation 8: Political power, state, and democracy 9: Where and how to find sociological data
