Learning objectives:
Students will learn basic terms of modern foreign language didactics, they will acquire a contemporary overview of didactic models and they will be able to correctly apply them in foreign language education.

Brief outline of the course:
Traditional teaching is not able to fully prepare young people for life in the 21st century. It is important, that students also adopt longer-lasting values and not just a large quantity of information. Students also need to develop their value and emotional sphere, socialisation, and creative capacities. These exact qualities are offered by humanistic oriented conceptions and teaching models (e.g. holistic education, functional education, problem-solving education, cooperative teaching).

4. Reads at least one issue of each of the following periodicals: Rozum, Knižná revue, Glosolália, Fraktál, Romboid and Literárny týždenník. The observations and evaluation will be presented in accordance with the instructor's guidelines.
The maximum total score for continuous and final assessment is 100 points. The grading scale is: A (100 – 94 %), B (93 –87 %), C (86 – 80 %), D (79 – 73 %), and E (72 – 65 %). Credits are awarded to students who obtain at least 65 out of 100 points by fulfilling the specified requirements.
a) continuous assessment:
presentation (0 – 50 points)
b) final assessment:
seminar paper (0 – 50 points)

Learning objectives:
Upon completion of the course, the student will be able to:
1. use basic concepts and terminology of literary studies when discussing and writing about contemporary Slovak prose;
2. explain the development of Slovak prose from 1989 to the first quarter of the 21st century and identify its main themes and transformations;
3. recognise the characteristic features of selected authors, compare their creative approaches, and place their works in a broader literary context;
4. analyse and interpret a selected prose text, support conclusions with specific examples, and consider how literature relates to personal, social, and artistic values;

5. navigate the contemporary literary environment and understand the role of publishing houses, literary periodicals, competitions, awards, cultural centres, literary criticism, and the book market;
6. discuss themes in contemporary prose, including identity, memory, gender, region, migration, home, and the experience of living abroad;
7. critically evaluate representations of contemporary reality in a literary work and distinguish the methods authors use to create them, including realism, irony, the grotesque, and experimentation.

Brief outline of the course:

1. Slovak literature after 2000 – basic characteristics of the period and its relationship to the literature of the 1990s.
2. Literary life in Slovakia – the operation of publishing houses, periodicals, literary criticism, competitions, and cultural institutions.
3. Plurality of contemporary prose – the absence of a single dominant movement and the coexistence of diverse themes, genres, and individual poetics.
4. Identity and autobiographical writing – personal memory, family history, self-discovery, and the connection between individual lives and history.
5. Gender and social issues – the position of women, interpersonal relationships, social roles, and feminist tendencies in prose.
6. Home, abroad, and the region – experiences of emigration or living abroad, encounters between cultures, and the significance of regional settings.
7. Ways of representing contemporary reality – the return to reality, irony, the grotesque, experimentation, and critical reflection on Slovak society.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-did-135 | Course name: Intensive Teaching Practice GE

Type, extent and method of instruction:
Form of instruction: Prax
Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)
Recommended number of periods: 30s
Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 2

Recommended semester/trimester: 4.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
Students will observe classes and perform independent outputs. After finishing their practice they will hand in a portfolio with materials from their teaching practice which include notes from observing classes (training teacher's classes and classes of fellow students), written preparations for direct teaching activities, including the didactic analysis of the curriculum, their own assessment of the teaching practice and written assessments by the training teacher for the individual classes taught.
Maximum number of points covering final assessment is 100. The course assessment corresponds to the A-FX grading scale: A (100 – 94%), B (93 – 87%), C (86 – 80%), D (79 – 73%), E (72 – 65%). Credits are assigned to students who acquire a minimum of 65 points out of a possible 100. The requirements and recommended literature are updated yearly in the course syllabus.
a) continual assessment: participation in teaching practice – observing classes and independent outputs: 0 – 50 points
b) final assessment:
portfolio with materials from the teaching practice: 0 – 50 points

Learning objectives:
Continual teaching practice is considered as a synthesising and integrating form of practical preparation of students from faculties of pedagogy. Students will be able to integrate various practical experiences acquired during previous forms of practice with new conditions and relations previously unknown to them. Students will have the chance to comprehensively assess how teachers work with pupils in different types of schools, gradually be able to solve specific educational situations and to also master out-of-class activities.

Brief outline of the course:
The focus of continual teaching practice is to design a project for a lesson based on the directions of training teachers, to consult the preparation for class with a department teacher and finally to independently lead a class.

Type, extent and method of instruction:
Form of instruction: Seminar
Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)
Recommended number of periods: 26
Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
The student undergoes theoretical preparation to understand the point of service learning as a strategy and develops the selected competences (team work, planning, promotion, evaluation). They actively participate in the identification of community needs and presents the findings. Based on this, the student describes the default situation in which the service learning activity will take place and consults it with the instructor. Subsequently, the student drafts their service learning project (default situation, service goals, educational goals, schedule, information of partners, promotion, funding, evaluation methods). The project draft is, again, consulted with the instructor.
The student selects the target group and project goals in accordance with their study field and focuses on developing their own text-work competences as well.
This course builds on the Literature and Service learning 1 course and enhances the theoretical knowledge of service learning.
a) continuous assessment:
(10) Active participation in block classes (3 blocks)
(10) Consultations
(10) Flexibility and appropriate communication
(20) Identification of the needs and formulation of the goals
(20) Quality of the project draft (the plan form)
b) final assessment:
Based on the continuous assessment (70%), self-assessment (15%), group assessment (15%).
The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). To collect the credits, the student has to score at least 65% in each activity (or at least 65% in total).

Learning objectives:
Upon completion of this course, the student
1. can explain the point of service learning
2. can work in a team and communicate in an appropriate way
3. can analyse their own needs as well as the needs of the community
4. can formulate the service learning goals based on these needs
5. can prepare a service learning project addressing actual needs and achieve the goals specified
6. understands the importance of personal and social responsibility and civic engagement

Brief outline of the course:

1. The point of service learning.
2. Team work and communication competence development.
3. Identifying the community needs.
4. How to determine the service and educational goals.
5. Planning as a competence – importance, steps.
6. Time management – importance and principles.
7. Promotion before and after the activity takes place.
8. How to evaluate the activities.
9. Service learning project draft.
10. Service learning project draft – evaluation.

b) final assessment:
See the course completion conditions.

Learning objectives:
The student enhances their pragmatic study of the selected texts addressing literary studies, which influence literature teaching in schools. They can identify the typical subject-didactic consequences of selecting specific methodological platforms from the major directions, schools, and currents in literary studies. They understand the relationships between contradictory methodological and subject-didactic viewpoints and can compare them. The student can critically evaluate the selected texts addressing literary studies and reflect on them from the viewpoint of teaching Slovak language and literature. They improve their ability to analyse the material and formulate opinions. They learn how to evaluate different professional approaches and verify their justification, evaluate their own arguments and the efficiency of teaching methods. The student learns how to design school literary education based on multiple methodological viewpoints and follows the development of methodology in literary studies. They develop their own professional profile based on the possibilities provided by up-to-date literary studies.

Brief outline of the course:

Literary studies – P. V. Zima's classification of approaches and their subject-didactic consequences: literary studies between Hegel and Kant.
– Marxism and Russian formalism.
– M. Bakhtin.
– The critical theory of the Frankfurt School (T. Adorno)
– Prague structuralism.
– Reader-response criticism (Konstanzer School), phenomenological literary studies.
– Semiotic approaches (R. Barthés, U. Eco, A. Greimas).
– Deconstruction.
– Critical and dialogic literary studies (P. V. Zima).
Zima's model of thinking in literary studies, the plurality of approaches in Slovak literary studies and subject didactics.
Selected relevant scholarly publications – reading, commenting, analysis (T. Adorno, M. M. Bachtin, R. Barthes, A. Compagnon, J. Culler, J. Derrida, U. Eco, R. Ingarden, W. Iser, R. Jakobson, H. R. Course completion conditions:
The grade depends on the student's active participation in seminars and completion of the final assignment as instructed (selected assignments or their combination: test, final paper, portfolio, discussion, micro-presentations, etc.).

b) final assessment:
The grade depends on the student's active participation in seminars and completion of the final assignment as instructed (selected assignments or their combination: test, final paper, portfolio, discussion, micro-presentations, etc.).

Learning objectives:
Upon completion of the course, the student – has learned about the specific spheres in which appropriate oral communication is used, i.e. education, practice, transcultural communication, media, science, journalism, art, etc.
– they can reflect on partial problems with erudition and in the appropriate contexts
– they can link theoretical knowledge to empiricism holistically
– they realise their own progress in terms of speaking, listening comprehension, rhetoric, monologic, and dialogic competences

Brief outline of the course:
The course is based on the topics from the Aspekte der Mündlichkeit (2016) course book. It covers the following oral expression topics: the primary nature of oral communication, pronunciation, phonetics and phonostylistics German sound and stereotypical ideas, language and music, overlaps between orality and writing phonic assimilation of xenisms, German as a foreign language, foreign accent and identity, listening as a skill, speaking as a skill, phonodidactics and foreign language teacher's speaking skills interpreting, rhetoric, monologicity and dialogicity, colloquialness (substandard), German pronunciation pluricentrism mediated communication, media, film dubbing etc. Particular attention is paid to the linguistic soundscape as a phenomenon in multicultural societies. Spheres are understood as areas in which orality is used appropriately: school, practice, interpreting, transcultural communication, official and private correspondence, media, science, journalism, art, etc.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
a) continuous assessment: participation in SILab activities – 50% of the overall grade
b) final assessment: preparation and presentation of a semester project – 50% of the overall grade
Within the continuous assessment, students complete assignments based on project-oriented learning implemented in the Social Innovation Living Lab (SILAb) environment. The assessment includes active participation in classes and SILAb activities, as well as participation in activities carried out in cooperation with external partners from practice.
The final assessment consists of the preparation and presentation of a semester project focused on proposing a solution to a specific real-world problem (e.g., a business model, an innovative solution, a strategy, etc.). A student receives a "passed" grade if they achieve at least 65% of the total course evaluation by fulfilling the specified requirements.
A resit for the continuous assessment can be completed no later than the last week of teaching and ongoing study obligations and consists of completing substitute assignments.
A resit for the final assessment can be completed during the period designated for completing study obligations and consists of a revised or newly prepared semester project and its presentation, focused on proposing a solution to a specific real-world problem.

Learning objectives:
The student:
1. uses appropriate scientific and analytical methods to solve assignments and is able to independently and methodologically correctly address research and applied tasks,
2. applies methods of collecting and processing primary and secondary data in practice, evaluates their suitability, formulates research questions and proposes solutions,
3. designs solutions to problems including an action plan and implementation strategy, applying principles of innovation ecosystems and smart solutions in public, private, and non-profit sectors,
4. designs and tests solutions in a living lab (SILab) using participatory approaches, creates and evaluates business models with regard to sustainability and ESG,
5. works with data and digital tools in designing solutions,
6. uses participatory and co-creation approaches when engaging stakeholders,
7. evaluates the social and economic impact of solutions, integrates knowledge from different disciplines, and presents results to both professional and general audiences.

Brief outline of the course:

Introduction to the course, idea generation, identification of business opportunities, definition of vision and strategic goals. Social economy, social entrepreneurship, legal framework of social enterprises in Slovakia, business models with social impact, impact measurement, ESG, CSR and non-financial reporting. Business plan development (Business Model Canvas, Lean Canvas), market research, competitor and customer analysis, segmentation, value proposition and go-to-market strategy. Operational planning, logistics, supply chains, outsourcing and risk management. Brand building, identity and positioning, basics of marketing, sales strategies and customer journey. Digital marketing (SEO, content, social media, CRM), feedback, product iteration and MVP. Digital business models, use of AI in business and its impacts, cybersecurity and data protection. Entrepreneurial mindset, dealing with failure, soft skills, leadership and ethics. Presentation of the business plan, pitch deck and defense of solutions.

Type, extent and method of instruction:
Form of instruction:
Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)
Recommended number of periods:
Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 20

Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 4..

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
The state exam has two parts:
Master thesis defence. The master thesis supervisor and second reader prepare a review of the master thesis and recommend evaluation. The state examination commission comprehensively evaluate the quality of the master thesis according to the reviews and student's defence.
The state examination consists of theory and didactics of a particular subject. (Has an individual COURSE DESCRIPTION with specified requirements for the state exam of given qualification course with the value of 2 credits).The state examination consists of an oral discussion-based defence of the master thesis. The state examination committee comprehensively evaluates the quality of the bachelor's thesis based on the assessments and student's defence of the thesis.
The defence of the bachelor's thesis is based on an oral discussion, questions formulated to encompass a more broadly conceived problem related to the master thesis. The solution of this problem requires that the student has the necessary knowledge listed in the theses for the state examination. These are based on the socio-scientific, psychological-pedagogical and subject-didactic context of the field.
The conditions for receiving the assessment A to E from the committee, after taking both parts of the state examination into account, are specified in the theses for the state examination.

Learning objectives:
By passing the state examination and defending the master thesis students will:
1. Gain knowledge relating to the problem addressed in the master thesis.
2. Be capable of understanding the basic context of the problem at hand and formulating clear conclusions and clear recommendations for practice.
3. Utilise
- relevant specialised sources and from these identify important notions for the context of the thesis,
- theoretical knowledge of the subject matter in practical diagnostic and didactic applications,
- basic pedagogical, psychological and social relations to explain the problem at hand,
- and apply principles of bibliographic and citation standards.
4. Be able to
- analyse the topic at hand in a logical structure of the master thesis,
- design and verify teaching methods and education programs to solve the problem addressed in the master thesis and interpret the results,

- critically and logically work with the theoretical background of the problem at hand in the given context and use it in specialised communication while reasoning and defending his/her own views of the problem at hand.
5. Create a consistent specialised, theoretical-didactic, respectively theoretical- research text which contains creative utilisation of relevant specialised sources, the student's own unique thoughts and possible solutions to the problem at hand

Brief outline of the course:
Specialised knowledge of the problem addressed in the master thesis, of its international, social and wider psychological-pedagogical context. Didactic transformation of chosen theoretical knowledge of a relevant specialization. The methodology of research of solved issue. The integration of knowledge from the individual disciplines of master studies and wider connections of theoretical background of the qualification course according to the thesis for the state examination. Integration of the theory of education and practice on the example of solved issue of master thesis. Specialised communication and argumentation. Dealing with literature, bibliographic and citation standards.

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Arts
Code: 2d-smg-01	Course name: State Examination – Diploma Thesis and Defence

Type, extent and method of instruction:
Form of instruction:
Course type: A (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)
Recommended number of periods:
Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 20

Recommended semester/trimester: 3., 4..

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
Completion of all compulsory courses in the study programme.
Completion of elective and voluntary courses in the quantity prescribed for the study programme (min. 100 credits).
Final assessment: The state exam consists of two parts:
(1) Diploma thesis (DT) defence. The DT supervisor and opponent create reviews and propose assessment. The State Examination Commission provides a complex evaluation of the DT's quality based on the reviews and student's thesis defence.
(2) The state examination also includes a specialised discussion (Methodological Instruction on the State Examination, 2022). During the discussion, the student responds to questions addressing the broader context of their DT subject matter to prove they have the knowledge pertaining to the state examination topics. These topics address the subject didactics, basics of social sciences, pedagogy, and psychology in the psychodidactic context of education.
The conditions for obtaining grades A to E take into account both parts of the state examination. They are specified in the current state examination topics.

Learning objectives:
1. The student has advanced knowledge and understanding of the subject matter addressed in the Diploma thesis including its broader context. They can formulate clear conclusions and practical recommendations. The student has developed systematic knowledge of the individual disciplines addressed during their university study.
2. In accordance with the field of study description, the student is required to prove the following (especially in the core curriculum disciplines – pedagogical psychology and social sciences) knowledge: 1) theoretical knowledge 2) practical skills and the ability to apply them in teaching the selected target group of students by providing a specific example of modelling the selected didactic variables in the general psychodidactic context (in accordance with the pedagogical and psychological disciplines that were part of the study).
3. In accordance with the field of study description, the student is required to prove the following knowledge of Slovak language teaching didactics, teaching basic writing, and literature didactics in the context of linguistics and literary studies: 1) theoretical knowledge, 2) practical skills and the ability to apply them in teaching at primary and secondary schools by providing a specific example of modelling the selected didactic variables in teaching Slovak language and literature as an academic subject (in accordance with the linguistic, literary studies, and didactic courses that were part of the study).

4. The student can identify relevant specialised sources as well as the ideas important for the context of their thesis. They have theoretical knowledge of the research topic in practical diagnostic and didactic contexts. They understand the research methodology, and the broader pedagogical, psychological, and social context of the problem. The student follows the bibliographic and citation standards.
5. The student can analyse the subject matter and arrange it into logically and systematically separated and interconnected structural parts of the thesis, design and verify the didactic procedures applied to the subject matter addressed in their thesis, design and implement research, and interpret its results. They can use the theory critically, synthesize the contextual knowledge, and use it in specialised communication, i.e. argumentation and defence of their opinion on the subject matter.
6. The student creates a consistent specialised text (focused on theory/didactics or theory/research) in which they approach the relevant specialised sources in a critical manner and uses the relevant sources in a creative way.
They can creatively process the relevant specialised sources, offer own original ideas and ways of addressing the subject matter.

Brief outline of the course:
1. Expert knowledge of the diploma thesis (DT) topic including its broader international, social, pedagogical and psychological contexts.
2. DT thesis topic in the context of the Teacher Training and Education Science FoS (ISCED 2 and 3).
3. Didactic transformation of the selected theoretical knowledge of the academic subject.
4. Research methodology.
5. Integrated knowledge of the disciplines studied including their broader context in accordance with the state examination topics. Integrated knowledge of the theory of upbringing applied to the DT topic.
6. Specialised communication and argumentation.
7. Working with literature, bibliographic and citation standards.
8. Presentation skills.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
At the beginning of the semester, the student reads the study regulations and identifies the needs of students who need tutorship. Upon consulting with the department study advisor, the student creates a plan of awareness raising activities. During the semester, the student performs awareness raising activities. Upon completion of the semester, they draft a self-reflective evaluation report.

a) continuous assessment:
analysis and evaluation of complaints/needs/issues: 0–20 p.
Preparation of activities: 0–25 p.
Implementation of these activities: 0–25 p.
Total: 0–70 p.

b) final assessment:
completing the final self-reflective evaluation report addressing the activities performed and their results including the relevant appendices (activity plan, promotion, list of attendees, photo documentation), and recommendations
0–30 p.
The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points (%).

Learning objectives:
The student:
1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the tutored students
2. can communicate properly within the student community
3. can independently provide consulting activities
4. navigates the academic environment well enough to provide useful advice
5. creates a communication platform on a social network and uses it efficiently
6. can evaluate other students' needs
7. can select appropriate forms of promotion of their activities
8. can evaluate the benefit of their creative activities and present their results.

Brief outline of the course:
The tutor cooperates with the department ECTS coordinators in consulting and providing information on study issues to students in accordance with the study rules and valid legislation.

They self-study the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, they advise other students on the selection of courses and creation of study plans in AiS2. They share their own experience with the selection and acquisition of study literature, studying for exams, individual study possibilities, scholarships, and participating in student organisations. They identify, analyse, and evaluate the tutored students' needs (e.g. via an online survey). In cooperation with the department study advisor and other student tutors, they prepare informational presentations and discussions, and promotes them. They inform other students on important dates in the academic schedule. They collect complaints and ideas, evaluate, and communicate them to the responsible staff. They communicate via an appropriate social media platform as well.
Students can enrol in this course upon consultation with the ECTS coordinator dr. Eva Molnárová.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-stu-803 | Course name: Student Tutoring SL 1

Type, extent and method of instruction:
Form of instruction:
Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)
Recommended number of periods:
Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester: 1., 3.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
At the beginning of the semester, the student reads the study regulations and identifies the needs of students who need tutorship. Upon consulting with the department study advisor, the student creates a plan of awareness raising activities. During the semester, the student performs awareness raising activities. Upon completion of the semester, they draft a self-reflective evaluation report.

a) continuous assessment:
analysis and evaluation of complaints/needs/issues: 0–20 p. Preparation of activities: 0–25 p. Implementation of these activities: 0–25 p.
Total: 0–70 p.

b) final assessment:
completing the final self-reflective evaluation report addressing the activities performed and their results including the relevant appendices (activity plan, promotion, list of attendees, photo documentation), and recommendations
0–30 p.
The grading scale: A (100–94%), B (93–87%), C (86–80%), D (79–73%), E (72–65%). Credits are assigned to the student who collects the minimum of 65 points (%).

Learning objectives:
The student:
1. is able to identify the needs and problems of the tutored students
2. can communicate properly within the student community
3. can independently provide consulting activities
4. navigates the academic environment well enough to provide useful advice
5. creates a communication platform on a social network and uses it efficiently
6. can evaluate other students' needs
7. can select appropriate forms of promotion of their activities
8. can evaluate the benefit of their creative activities and present their results.

Brief outline of the course:
The tutor cooperates with the department ECTS coordinators in consulting and providing information on study issues to students in accordance with the study rules and valid legislation.

They self-study the study regulations. In cooperation with the study advisor, they arrange meetings with new students at the beginning of the academic year. They inform the new students about life at the university, their rights and responsibilities, and explain the principles of credit study. They advise students on the selection of courses and creation of study plans in AiS2. They share their own experience with the selection and acquisition of study literature, studying for exams, individual study possibilities, scholarships, and participating in student organisations. They identify, analyse, and evaluate the tutored students' needs (e.g. via an online survey). In cooperation with the department study advisor and other student tutors, they prepare informational presentations and discussions, and promotes them. They inform other students on important dates in the academic schedule. They collect complaints and ideas, evaluate, and communicate them to the responsible staff. They communicate via an appropriate social media platform as well.

Course Description

University: Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Faculty: Faculty of Arts

Code: 2d-vdsl-02 | Course name: The Great Works in World Literature II

Type, extent and method of instruction:
Form of instruction: Lecture
Course type: C (A - Compulsory courses, B - Compulsory elective courses, C - Elective courses)
Recommended number of periods: 26
Method of study: combined

Number of credits: 3

Recommended semester/trimester: 2., 4.

Level: II.

Prerequisites:

Course completion conditions:
The student prepares an essay in which he/she takes a position on the issue discussed.
The final assessment is passed/failed.

Learning objectives:
1. The student will obtain an adequate overview of the origin and functioning of selected representative literary works from several civilizational and cultural areas from medieval literature to contemporary literature; will improve in professional terminology.
2. The student will acquire the specific interpretation skills necessary when working with a literary text anchored in a radically different cultural environment, thereby strengthening tolerance towards cultural differences and the will to respect the right to be different.
3. The student is able to conduct research on the assigned topic, can identify reliable sources, select relevant information from them and present it to others in a clear and useful form.
4. The student will acquire an organized sum of knowledge and a more widely applicable set of useful habits, methods, approaches, competences applicable in the interpretation of literary and non-literary texts or other cultural phenomena from various cultural periods.

Brief outline of the course:
Some of the greatest works of the European literature from the Middle Ages to the present day will be presented. It will be a selective selection of the presentation of literary worlds and the values they created.
The Divine Comedy as the main work of the Middle Ages or the Renaissance? The Middle Ages as the "cradle" of European culture and education. Testaments enfant terrible. The spiciness of the Decameron and Laura's ephemerality. From Shakespeare to French classical drama. Playwrights and their (non)dramatic characters. Fairy tales that changed the world. Shock the bourgeois! Avant-gardes in world art. Literature as a place for women. On Freedom, Being and Apricot Cocktails: Existentialism in World Literature. Crazy for Life: The Beat Generation and Their Followers. Great works in small publishers.
